Carol A. Newsom, 2021-10-12 The first full length study of the evolution of self and agency in ancient Israelite anthropology Conceptions of the self have received significant recent attention in philosophy anthropology and cultural history Scholars argue that the introspective self of the modern West is a distinctive phenomenon that cannot be projected back onto the cultures of antiquity While acknowledging such difference is vital it can lead to an inaccurate flattening of the ancient self In this study Carol A Newsom explores the assumptions that govern ancient Israelite views of the self and its moral agency before the fall of Judah as well as striking developments during the Second Temple period She demonstrates how the collective trauma of the destruction of the Temple catalyzed changes in the experience of the self in Israelite literature including first person singular prayers notions of self alienation and emerging understandings of a defective heart and will Examining novel forms of spirituality as well as sectarian texts Newsom chronicles the evolving inward gaze in ancient Israelite literature unveiling how introspection in Second Temple Judaism both parallels and differs from forms of introspective selfhood in Greco Roman cultures The Holy Spirit Within

St. John of Avila, 2017-03-31 St John of Avila proclaimed a doctor of the Church in October 2012 offers illuminating insights on the Holy Spirit in the collection of homilies first published by Scepter in 1959 Presented as sermons given around the feasts of Ascension and Pentecost the saint speaks directly and to the point yet is thoughtful and affectionate in his style He proceeds in the form of a dialogue to present the Great Unknown The sermons begin with a short introduction and then come to a particular point supported by Scripture texts quotations from the Fathers well chosen illustrations and his own original insights Many believers may find these feasts somewhat puzzling and obscure St John shows how they are among the greatest feasts in the Christian calendar and deserve to be better understood The spirit within me Helle Mirsbach, 2021-09-16 Helle Mirsbach grew up in an ordinary family without any daily practice of belief or religion Even though she has always felt drawn to the forces of the universe without quite knowing why or how to find her way There are many people who like her need to find the spiritual path and Helle s story shows how the Universe shows the path if you are open and receptive to the messages they send In a relaxed and unpretentious way Helle writes about the experiences that have brought her together with mediums both well known and lesser known and through her experiences has found her own path It is precisely finding one s own path one s own truth that drives Helle to tell the stories so that you hopefully also find your own path THE EVERLASTING

you will never believe God sends this book on miracles as a love offering to his earthly disciples Read and believe in miracles
