The Way of the Cross Caryll Houselander, 2015-01-26 In The Way of the Cross Caryll Houselander accomplishes two things first by her imaginative recreation of the Passion and Death of Our Lord realized with intensity detail and depth she brings a drama of anguish and tragedy to our immediate awareness secondly she shows us the Passion reflected in all human suffering We can no more be detached spectators of the Passion than we can be detached spectators of the griefs and travails of the contemporary world As Caryll Houselander writes the part we are called to play is that of Veronica coming forward to wipe the tears and sorrows from every stricken face we meet And each time we have the courage and compassion to do so we find the same image left on the veil These profound meditations on the Stations of the Cross allow the reader to walk in the footsteps of Christ on that distant yet ever-present Good Friday

The Living Church, 1944 New Books on Women and Feminism, 2002 The Sacramentality of Music Christina Labriola, 2024-08-19 Steeped in the Catholic spiritual tradition The Sacramentality of Music argues that musical experience in its appeal to the entirety of the human person can serve as a locus of encounter with the divine and an occasion of God's self-revelation in love with spiritually nurturing ultimately transformative ends Christina Labriola contends that this dynamic might most aptly be understood as sacramental an all-encompassing perspective of the cosmos permeated by the divine creative salvific sustaining presence Through its participation in the mysteries of beauty and creativity its bodily and affective engagement and impact on the inner life music operates sacramentally manifesting divine realities through the tangible stuff of human experience In a thematic theological exploration that interweaves pastoral theology theological aesthetics and mysticism the reader is invited to contemplate music's sacramental potentiality and to engage the sacramentally charged music of Beethoven Bartok MacMillan Messiaen Mozart Envalds Bach Part and Hildegard In attending to musical ways of relating to God this book invites readers into a deepening awareness of the sacramental nature of reality itself as that in which the spiritual resonance of music is grounded and reveals afresh taking musical beauty seriously in the spiritual order with repercussions for Christian living Coming Home to Your True Self Albert Haase OFM,2008-04-18 Albert Haase presents the spiritual journey as a return home And home is the sacrament of the present moment It is only living right now right here that we discover life and this world awash in the grace of God We simply need to become aware and grow in greater sensitivity to the divine Presence who dwells within and in whom we dwell
