Making Christian Counseling More Christ-Centered Rick W. Marrs Ph.D., 2019-09-13 Many Christian counselors and pastors want to bring Christ's Gospel and forgiveness into their soul care, but don't know how. Luther's very Christ-centered theology, based in his desire for care of souls, can provide us with that foundation. Various techniques flowing from that foundation are shared. Martin Luther formulated his proclamation of the message of Scripture for his contemporaries between the poles of God's voice in the pages of the Bible and the needs and afflictions of his hearers and readers. Marrs brings twenty-first century readers into that exchange and demonstrates how Luther's insights into the gospel of Jesus Christ help bring healing and comfort to those struggling with guilt, shame, fear, loneliness, and other spiritual afflictions in our day. This volume provides those who are engaged in conversation with the troubled and distressed with rich resources for fostering peace and joy in the midst of such trouble and distress.

Robert Kolb PhD, professor of systematic theology, emeritus, Concordia Seminary, Saint Louis, USA. If all good theology is pastoral in its orientation, then this groundbreaking practical biblical study is well worth careful consideration by any pastor or Christian counsellor. In it, Marrs engages in a conversation with the teaching of Luther as a Christ-centered pastoral theologian and the practical insights of psychologists on the personal care of their clients, with a special emphasis on Luther's insistence on the need to distinguish between law and gospel in the proper application of God's gracious word with the delivery of soul care to God's people.

John W. Kleinig PhD, Professor Emeritus, Australian Lutheran College, University of Divinity, Adelaide, South Australia.

Gospel-Centered Counseling Robert W. Kellemen, 2014-10-21 Everyone talks about the personal ministry of the Word but how do we make one another ministry truly biblical Gospel Centered Counseling equips readers to change lives with Christ's changeless truth It does so by examining life's seven ultimate questions and then guiding readers on a journey that explores the biblical gospel centered narrative of The Word What is truth Where can I find answers The Trinity Who is God Can I know Him personally Creation Who am I What makes people tick Fall What went wrong Why do we do the things we do Redemption Can I change How do people change Glorification Where am I headed How does our future destiny impact our present reality Sanctification How can I help How can I change lives Bob Kellemen builds on the foundation of the written Word and provides a gospel centered resource for understanding people diagnosing problems and prescribing biblically based solutions Gospel Centered Counseling is the first volume in The Equipping Christian Counselors Series a comprehensive relational training curriculum for the local church that provides a model for equipping God's people to change lives with Christ's changeless truth This two volume series weaves together comprehensive biblical insight with compassionate Christian engagement

Therapy Thieves Francis A. Martin, 2020-03-13 Why are we practicing counselors and psychotherapists committed to failure This is the question that has haunted Dr Francis Martin as he has cataloged well over 20 000 distinct psychotherapy approaches advertised on the websites of licensed mental health professionals No doubt some of these are harmful most of them ineffective and many simply made up but the sheer volume of such techniques and practices advertised by licensed professionals holding advanced degrees whose services are billed to clients and insurance companies calls the credibility of the entire mental health profession into question Based on significant original research that joins research from others this book describes a near universal crisis in mental health care and recommends ways to rescue the field from itself The crisis is caused by declining competence among counselors and psychotherapists who have failed to regulate themselves and who therefore deliver inadequate if not harmful services The book calls for major specific and urgently needed reforms

Counseling and Community Rod Wilson, 2003-04 Traditionally counseling has focused primarily on the individual overlooking the interaction between the community and the individual Wilson has created a biblically based counseling model that anchors the individual within the community The result is a perspective that encompasses all aspects of a person's life where the community becomes a helper in the counseling process The thesis of this book is tied to the assumption that we need a counseling approach that is community oriented rather than exclusively focused on the individual When this is the case we will be able to appreciate the biblical emphasis on the people of God While he prizes a relationship with individuals God's heart is with a body a fellowship a community Both pastors and private counselors need to reaffirm the priority of community and its power in the healing process Rod Wilson PhD York University is President and Professor of Counselling and Psychology at Regent College in Vancouver B C Canada He is also the author of Exploring Your Anger and Helping Angry People Proactive Pastoral Counseling Yaron I. Kohen, 2025-06-25 Proactive Pastoral Counseling An Intrapersonal Approach for Cultivating Christian Formation is a practical and Spirit led guide for believers who long to grow deeper in Christ and find freedom from inner struggles Rev Dr Yaron I Kohen tackles the confusion and hurt caused by religious legalism and spiritual relativism offering a clear four step biblical process to renew readers minds and reshape their lives Through Scripture spiritual insight and real life application readers will learn how to confront personal battles challenge unhealthy thinking and align their thoughts with God's truth This book doesn't just lead toward inner healing it equips people to help others walk in biblical clarity peace and purpose Pastoral Counseling: Where One Encounters the Enormity of God's Love Gerald V. Miller, 2022-08-05 The pastoral counselor brings God's presence to the counseling session The counselor radiates God's enormous unconditional love and forgiveness to the client Clients come in because they are spiritually broken and prey to the allies of darkness a fear of abandonment from God and those they love resentment frustration anxiety and callousness He is the prodigal son Through empathy compassion and counseling skills the pastoral counselor connects them to the God who runs to meet him with joy throws his arms around him kisses him forgives him and makes him psychologically and spiritually whole again by giving him the signet ring The pastoral counselor's role is to facilitate this occurrence Counseling Under the Cross Bob Kelleman, 2017-08-14 Martin Luther not only reformed theology Luther reformed pastoral counseling Through lively vignettes real life stories and direct quotes from Luther Counseling Under the Cross equips us to apply the gospel richly relevantly and robustly to suffering and sin so that we find our hope and help in Christ alone Counseling Addicted Families Gerald A. Pitchford, 2011-04-01

Contemporary Christianity is afflicted with two problems First our spiritual life is often bland and lukewarm Distracted and fragmented by our lives and malnourished on conventional piety we feel out of touch with the God described in the Bible as a consuming fire Second we don't know how to make sense of suffering especially the pain of spiritual darkness and aridity The answer to both of these problems is passion In God in the Dark Susan Pitchford explores the two faces of passion desire the mutual attraction between the soul and God and suffering especially our confusion and grief when we find ourselves in dark places We often misinterpret times of darkness assuming we've failed and God has abandoned us Pitchford suggests that darkness is not a place of abandonment but a place of intimacy and a special call to a deeper relationship with the God who desires us Once we understand this we will not have to fear the dark and when the night closes in around us we can experience it as an embrace The Paradox of Islamic Finance Ryan Calder, 2024-08-06 How the booming Islamic finance industry became an ultramodern hybrid of religion and markets In just fifty years Islamic finance has grown from a tiny experiment operated from a Volkswagen van to a thriving global industry worth more than the entire financial sector of India South America or Eastern Europe You can now shop with an Islamic credit card invest in Islamic bonds and buy Islamic derivatives But how has this spectacular growth been possible given Islam's strictures against interest In The Paradox of Islamic Finance Ryan Calder examines the Islamic finance boom arguing that shariah scholars experts in Islamic law who certify financial products as truly Islamic have made the industry a profitable if controversial hybrid of religion and markets Critics say Islamic finance merely reproduces conventional interest based finance with the shariah scholars blessing From an economic perspective they are right the most popular Islamic products act like conventional interest bearing ones earning healthy profits for Islamic banks and global financial heavyweights like Deutsche Bank and Goldman Sachs Yet as Calder shows by delving into the shariah scholars day to day work what seem like high tech work arounds to outsiders carry deep and nuanced meaning to the scholars and to the hundreds of millions of Muslims who respect their expertise He argues that shariah scholars conception of Islamic finance is perfectly suited to the age of financialization and the global efflorescence of
