

A person wearing a blue robe stands in the center of a narrow, winding canyon. The canyon walls are illuminated with vibrant, warm colors like orange, yellow, and red, creating a dramatic and spiritual atmosphere. The person is looking down, and their shadow is cast on the ground.

Regeneration is a spiritual change;
conversion is a spiritual motion.

Theoretical-Practical

Theology, Volume 5 Petrus Van Mastricht,2025-09-02 Petrus van Mastricht's Theoretical Practical Theology presents one of the most comprehensive methods of treating Christian doctrine. In it Mastricht treats every theological topic according to a four part approach: exegetical, dogmatic, elenctic and practical. As a body of divinity, it combines a rigorous scholastic treatment of doctrine with the pastoral aim of preparing people to live for God through Christ. Students and pastors will find it a valuable model for moving from the text of Scripture to doctrinal formulation that will edify the people of God. Volume 5: The Application of Redemption and the Church examines how the covenantal grace procured by Jesus Christ touches all who experience union and communion with Him in faith. Mastricht's outline of the personal application of redemption embraces calling, regeneration, conversion, union with Christ, justification, adoption, sanctification and glorification. This is followed with the context of that application: treating the nature of the church, its ministers, its sacraments, church discipline and church governance. This volume helps us understand the significance of personal salvation and Christ's assembly of the saved. A fascinating look at the redemptive connection between soteriology and ecclesiology. Jeong Koo Jeon,2009-06-12 John Calvin 1509-64 was the pinnacle of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation in Europe. As we celebrate the five hundred year anniversary of his birth, it is worthy to explore Calvin's covenant theology, which may be one of the best windows to understand and evaluate his theology as a whole. In recent years, the Federal Vision has been surfaced in the American conservative Reformed and evangelical circles. It has strong hermeneutical, theological and practical attachment with Calvin. Although Calvin was a covenant theologian, he firmly maintained the evangelical distinction between law and gospel, especially in his exposition of justification by faith alone (sola fide) and salvation by grace alone (sola gratia), with a balanced emphasis on believers' covenantal obedience. Moreover, we will find out that Calvin not only applied the distinction between law and gospel to soteriology but also in the depiction of redemptive history. In Calvin, the distinction between law and gospel was foundational for the depiction of biblical vision of eschatology in the Garden of Eden before the Fall and under the Old Covenant. However, the exponents of the Federal Vision deny any validity of the distinction between law and gospel in hermeneutics, theology and practice while they identify themselves with those of Calvin. In that sense, we may identify the Federal Vision not with the Protestant Reformation and Calvin but as consistent monocovenantalism in which they deny the distinction between law and gospel and apply that monocovenantal principle consistently to their understandings of hermeneutics, soteriology, the doctrine of double predestination and sacramental theology. The Feeling Clayten

Taylor,2017-05-19 This book is an Esoteric interpretation of Emanuel Swedenborg's spiritual writings. It is written from a sinner's perspective as a personal memoir meant to impart spiritual guidance by example. It is a hands-on self-help book on how to birth the Divine Feminine Essence of Love from within. The author traces the Divine back to its original source as Essential Love and Essential Innocence which begins in the body as a sensual feeling of love and through the process of regeneration it becomes the Word of God Then by sharing the spiritual feeling of the Word as love it becomes a blissful union with the Divine within as the feeling of the New Church The New Church is the perception of an influx of spiritual love flowing from within as happiness For when the feeling of love from a sensual life has been transformed into the spiritual feeling of love and when done on a mass scale it ultimately manifests as the Brotherhood of Mankind as the feeling of Heaven on Earth THE POWER OF GOD Edward D.
