Women Faithful for the Future Maria Riley, 1987-02 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com 100 Answers to Questions from the Neighborhoods Tim Wallingford, 2016-12-29 100 Answers to Questions from the Neighborhoods Personal Evangelism Done Jesus Style Companion Study Guide is a modern day application of Jesus and the apostles strategy to fulfill the Great Commission In just 30 years their evangelistic method was bearing fruit and growing throughout the whole world Colossians 1:6 Did you know Jesus walked over 3 000 miles through neighborhoods throughout Palestine In Matthew 10 Jesus commanded his disciples to go into a neighborhood find a worthy person and stay at their home From there they went out and met the neighbors The disciples then showed love to those they met by meeting any physical need s Only then would they share Gods love story the gospel of Christ This was also Jesus personal strategy Today most evangelistic plans involve attracting the neighbors into the church Churches do this with events dynamic worship services and quality programs for every member of the family Many churches do this well but sadly the American church is in decline Less than 20% of Americans now regularly attend church In 1990 20.4% attended church In 2000 the percentage dropped to 18.7% By the year 2050 if the church doesnt change it is estimated church attendance will drop to 11.7% This can be reversed if we adopt the evangelistic strategy used by Jesus and the apostles This book gives you a detailed breakdown of the gospel the apostle Peter presented on the Day of Pentecost that ended with 3 000 baptisms in one day The book will also show you how Luke the author of Acts packaged the never changing gospel to ten different types of neighborsthe hurting religious spiritualist seeker fanatic good person abuser skeptic misinformed and pleasure seeker This book and its training manual identify over one hundred questions about spiritual matters and help you have the answers your neighbors need to hear Human Suffering and the Evil of Religion Dennis Jensen, 2018-01-25 Dennis Jensen looks at two very important problems that have led many to reject religious belief generally and Christianity in particular Why has God allowed the extreme suffering we find in our world And Can religion be blamed for much of this suffering He looks at not only the evil so often associated with religions inquisitions holy wars pogroms witch hunts but also some of the difficulties found specifically in the Bible Did the God of the Bible command or advocate mass murder homophobia slavery Is the New Testament anti Semitic Jensen argues persuasively that a fully biblical teaching does not advocate subservience of women in today s society church or family It does not condemn all same gender sexual relations or transgender identity It does not teach an eternal hell As just one of the many fascinating topics he tackles one of the more important biblical reasons suggested for the existence of evil is that God wants to know whether we will seek to stop or alleviate the suffering we see whether we will learn to have Gods heart whether we will hate evil and anguish over the hurting as God does Christian Spiritual Formation Diane J. Chandler, 2014-04-04 This comprehensive theory and practice of Christian spiritual formation weaves together biblical and theological foundations with interdisciplinary scholarship real world examples personal vignettes and practical tools to assist readers in becoming whole persons in relationship with God and others      Karl Barth's Theology of Relations, Volume 2 Gary Deddo, 2015-08-04 This work originally published as one volume in the Peter Lang series Issues in Systematic Theology is now available in two volumes In the first volume Gary Deddo shows how Barth grasped the nature of relations as intrinsic to the being and act of the Triune God and to God's relations to us and our relationship to God in Christ Deddo then completes his comprehensive survey showing how Barth saw the reality of the divine relationships analogically pertains by grace to humanity and its creaturely relationships Barth's doctrine of God Christology and theological anthropology are all intrinsically onto relational to borrow a term coined by Thomas F Torrance In the second volume Deddo shows how Barth's relational theology is intrinsically ethical As a case study Deddo explicates Barth's ethical teaching on the relationship between parents and children found in section 54 of his chapter on Freedom in Fellowship in CD III 4 He further demonstrates the relevance and fruitfulness of Barth's theology of relations for critically engaging other theological and non theological views of the family and for shedding ethical light on a wide range of contemporary issues facing families especially in the North American context Karl Barth is known for his insight into the inseparability of act and being in God What is less recognized is that Barth's theological understanding of dynamic covenantal relationship is also essential to his doctrine of the Triune God his Christology and theological anthropology God is revealed in Jesus Christ to be one in act being and relation Humanity is revealed in Jesus Christ to be essentially a unity of act being and relation The failure to see the ethical implications of Barth's theology can be traced in large part to the failure to grasp how Barth's understanding of God's being and act is also essentially relational Deddo's work corrects this oversight and opens up the door to better comprehension of Barth's trinitarian doctrine of God his Christology anthropology and ethics      Faith Development in Early Childhood Doris A. Blazer, 1989-03 Essays which have grown out of the experience of the December 1987 Kanuga National Symposium on Faith Development in Early Childhood P 4 of cover Includes bibliographical references p 155 169      Joining Children on the Spiritual Journey Catherine Stonehouse, 1998-03-01 Understanding how a child's faith forms is crucial to knowing how adults can most significantly enhance the child's spiritual development This book provides parents teachers and Christian education leaders with valuable insights into spiritual formation during childhood With a biblical perspective as a starting point and a recognition of the crucial role of both the family and the faith community Stonehouse reviews important contributions from noted child development experts Erik Erikson Jean Piaget Lawrence Kohlberg and James Fowler This overview gives insight into the processes of psychosocial cognitive and moral development in children and adolescents Stonehouse concludes with solid guidelines for designing children's ministries By carefully setting the stage through liturgy sacred stories and parables Christian educators can help children meet with God Quiet times of godly play carefully adapted to the age level of the child enable adults to join with children on the journey toward deeper intimacy with God      The Lifegiving Collection: The
