If Anyone Thirsts Ian Robinson, 2016-03-18 All through scripture the people of God have found true freedom in a journey through the desert It is a simple trajectory the exodus the exile the forty days the cross This book aims to lead you down the lost seam of gold that is desert spirituality in the Bible The desert makes a powerful spiritual impact on those who go there It encourages us to realize that we know who we really are only when we have nothing Nothing is when we sense God's presence in the awesome stars and skies Nothing is the stunning silence of the sand dunes as it welcomes the dawning in our mind that God is real and God is good Nothing is what we have in fierce places and dry times But looking around the wealthy churches of the western world we hang on to what we've got for fear that God has no more to give We seek rational controls over the Spirit of God Faith has become more about words than love No wonder we are thirsty We desperately need to recover a dimension of our faith that has been left out If you are tired of the dogmatic pathways of religion or if you have departed the church for fear of shriveling this book will steer you back to the best of biblical spirituality That is what was in mind when Moses spoke Deuteronomy in the desert the same place where Jesus caught wind of it This spirituality grounds us Jesus our role model and source our presence and promise is making us an offer If we grasp this it could open up a resource of strength and simplicity in this challenging twenty first century Given the number of biblical heroes whose faith and dependence on God were honed in the white heat of the desert to those who have ears to hear this book offers an eloquent challenge deliberately to seek deeper spiritual transformation in dry places and not always be satisfied with a focus on verdant pastures and flowing streams whether in our churches or elsewhere Dr Andrew D Clarke Senior Lecturer in New Testament University of Aberdeen Scotland For many years I have been journeying with Ian in the deserts of Australia His reflections have provided me with a fresh language and joy in exploring the landscape of my soul As Ian says the desert is the spiritual director however his biblical knowledge of desert spirituality has deepened my experience and the richness of the blessings I have received out there Susan Kaldor Counsellor Leadership Consultant Spiritual Director Fellow traveller I commend readers to Ian Robinson s book and hope that many who experience the spiritual aridity of urban existence can find the water of life in the desert places of the heart David Tacey Professor of Humanities La Trobe University Melbourne Ian Robinson was the first to cross all of Australia s deserts in one journey It was deeply transforming for all involved Since then he has led hundreds on desert retreats called Spirit Journeys and has researched written and spoken in many church and community settings Ian is the Uniting Church Chaplain at the University of Western Australia is married to Margaret with three adult children He has an MA from Oxford University and a PhD from Charles Sturt University

Desert Spirituality and Cultural Resistance Belden Lane, 2018-07-10 The wholeness of the life we seek is one that we are seldom able to envision in advance It takes a shape that only the desert knows Desert Spirituality and Cultural Resistance From Ancient Monks to Mountain Refugees is a passionate exploration of the theme of wilderness in the spiritual life These three lectures by accomplished storyteller and theologian Belden Lane are inspirational in a way that lectures rarely are Lane urges us to think courageously about the place of wilderness in Christian life He contemplates the radical lives of the fourth century Desert Fathers and Mothers as well as the courageous example of sixteenth century Anabaptists He speaks of the ways in which wilderness can relate to the practice of a counter cultural spirituality today and he asks Can desert and mountain gift us with a language to understand the experiences in our lives when we are taken to the edge finding ourselves isolated and alone both spiritually and culturally The wilderness is a place of suffering out on the edge It is a place of letting go a place for dying and yet also a place for coming alive The desert is where things fall apart and where things may come together for us in an unanticipated way ThirdWay , 1986-09 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture The Study of Spirituality Cheslyn Jones, Geoffrey Wainwright, Edward Yarnold, 1986-12-11 Written by contributors representing the Anglican Roman Catholic Free Church and Orthodox traditions this collection examines the nature and form of individual Christian devotion throughout the centuries

Landscape as Sacred Space Steven Lewis, 2005-07-15 Steven Lewis s Landscape as Sacred Space Metaphors for the Spiritual Journey invites new discussions about our spiritual journeys and allows seekers to rethink approaches to Christian spirituality and theology in light of postmodernity Landscape metaphors provide a common and accessible language to articulate one s spiritual journey Spiritual mountains deserts and valleys are dominant landscapes on our journey through life

Most people have experienced the joy of a mountaintop spiritual experience the pain of spiritual deserts or perhaps the dreariness too often associated with spiritual valleys There is a tendency however to highlight spiritual mountaintops while avoiding spiritual deserts and ignoring spiritual valleys This leaves many Christians ill equipped either to deal with crises or to integrate God into ordinary life Each landscape offers rich lessons that when combined together lead us toward a maturing faith and into a deeper relationship with God Landscape as Sacred Space is intended to aid those who search for more meaningful ways to articulate their faith journey The book grants permission to struggle with life s landscapes provides safe spaces to reflect on the journey and introduces language that enables exploration and discovery Spirituality and Pastoral Care Kenneth Leech,2005-11-18 This book explores the relationship between personal spirituality and pastoral ministry extolling the pastor s primary role as spiritual instructor to the parish Leech shares with pastors and spiritual directors the important insights that counseling and psychotherapy lend to the process of spiritual direction Leech amkes concrete his advice in spiritual formation by holding up the lives of four parish priests who were a great influence on his own spiritual development and of whom the Church Times writes All were gospel radicals Balance of the Heart Lois Farag,2012-11-06 Desert spirituality speaks to the mind and heart It is a spirituality that helps us balance our work and daily obligations and figure out our priorities and the place of God in our lives Desert spirituality addresses our most intimate thoughts and helps us analyze the roots of our spiritual setbacks Its essence is to love the Lord with all our heart soul and mind Matt 22 37 Starting in fourth century Egypt desert spirituality has become a global phenomenon It has endured through the centuries because it is practical and simple it tells us how to live out Scripture in our daily lives It is also profound it is deeply rooted in the theology of the incarnation and the renewal of creation by the resurrection The desert fathers and mothers left us short wisdom sayings revealing their inner experience in their long journey toward being with God They speak about Scripture and prayer but also about how to love our neighbors discern our thoughts and evaluate our daily activities Come learn from these desert dwellers as they teach us about the examination of thoughts the discernment of the soul and the balance of the heart Studies in Formative Spirituality ,1990 The Family, Spirituality, and Social Work Dorothy Becvar,2014-07-16 One of the few books on this topic The Family Spirituality and Social Work offers mental health professionals new information and research for creating more positive effective and satisfying sessions You will learn how integrating spirituality and therapy can create open and trusting environments where clients feel accepted respected and spiritually affirmed Studies show that religion is not only a way for people to be closer to their god but is also a part of their identity that dictates what they do how they think and who they are The Family Spirituality and Social Work will help you understand what religion means to your clients and discusses different methods of answering the questions What is religion and How does religion affect our lives In addition you will gain insight into how a social constructionist perspective can create the most successful sessions for your patients cases studies of how therapists personal biases lack of adequate education personal discomfort and self serving needs may contribute to problems and complications in therapy the importance of including spirituality in the education of social workers and other therapists in order to avoid problems and complications with clients the nine major components of spirituality defined in psychological terms the guidance women may need in therapy to find themselves spiritually given male centered biases and patriarchal values in many spiritual traditions the seven steps used to help women find their spirituality including awakening and discovering as well as a practice model that will help practitioners address women s spirituality how and why the relational systems model RSM can promote wholeness and growth in family therapy groups Providing you with information on how people perceive religion and spirituality The Family Spirituality and Social Work also features studies of the therapeutic needs of those with different religious beliefs With this solid knowledge and understanding of religion and spirituality and how it may affect clients you will create a trusting environment that enhances your clients experiences and makes you a more successful practitioner

The Art of Interfaith Spiritual Care Walter Blair Stratford, 2016-06-23 Relationships between people are frequently compromised as a result of religious viewpoints but appropriate spiritual care requires bridges to understanding that will allow for trust and justice to become visible The pattern for this book is shaped on the recognition that while religious expressions differ markedly in their presentation we can discern at the core of all religious expressions a supposition of sacred presence It is therefore helpful for us all in the daily events of our lives that we approach people of other faiths with a degree of humility recognizing that neither we nor they have a final answer to the question of faith The book is divided into four parts each part containing some chapters in which elements of interfaith care are considered Part one explores the complexities of interfaith engagement Part two discusses ways for caring for each other in the search for meaning Part three claims that spirituality is most difficult if not impossible to define but can be visible in a variety of experiences The fourth part explores ways in which all that has gone before may be put into practice as spiritual care

Transformed by the Desert Experience Clarence Dalrymple, 2013-08 Have you ever felt as if you were all alone in this world Nobody understood what was going through your mind or the experiences that you were encountering It seems that you have entered into a period of God s silence that seems to go on forever The cry of your heart is Where are you God Why have you forsaken me How long will you allow this to happen What is next after this time of silence Is it a wilderness that stretches our trust Is it a punishment or a test Is it abandonment or a preparation for something wonderful in store for us Is it God s judgment or His infinite kindness that helps us grow spiritually mature There are times of difficulty that seem like a dark night of the soul However this is also when we grow deeper in faith and we are refined of hindrances and gain the fragrance of Jesus by the fruit of the Spirit This time that you go through is a desert experience Each person encounters his or her own personal struggle No journey is identical for each person but each individual desert experience produces the same result in every person When God deals with us His purpose is growth maturity and preparation And it always involves death to self God will draw us into a desert experience with Him to give us the opportunity to grow to die to self to learn to trust Him or to gain more insight into His ways God has put a blueprint of His divine purpose in each individual This blueprint was imprinted in your spirit before you were ever born God never deviates from His plan in order to bring it to complete manifestation But everyone has to go through these formative years of growing and maturing This is the desert experience This is where your calling is redefined and your character is refined Are we willing to be changed Do we want to go further Perhaps the desert is the place for us Don't be afraid it is a road that many have followed in Christ Just remember that He will never leave you and does not forget his promises My reason for writing this book is to encourage those of you who are experiencing this dry season in your life I want you to know that the divine purpose that God has ordered for your life will be completed God wants you to see and understand that where you are in life and what you are experiencing in your life is not going to destroy you You will exit from your desert with a redefined call and a refined character You are not alone but God your Father is right there with you He has promised that He will never leave us nor forsake us but will always be present with us In the spiritual life the desert experience is a time of preparation and deepening of our life with the Lord

The Complete Idiot's Guide to Jewish Spirituality & Mysticism Michael Graubart Levin, 2002 Looks at the spiritual side of Judaism covering such topics as mystical ideas expressed in Jewish texts Jewish customs proper speech gematria and Jewish holidays

Pilgrimage through a Burning World Ken Butigan, 2012-02-01 For two decades the Nevada Desert Experience has organized nonviolent action at the Nevada Test Site as part of the global movement to end nuclear testing Pilgrimage through a Burning World illuminates how the Franciscan based group has crafted a contemporary desert spirituality that integrates religious ritual and political action to grapple with the challenges of an institutionalized and internalized nuclear world Ken Butigan shows how the annual pilgrimage to the test site has contributed to the personal transformation of people on both sides of the fence at the test site and to the worldwide emergence of the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty

The ^ASolace of Fierce Landscapes Belden C. Lane, 2007-02-26 In the tradition of Kathleen Norris Terry Tempest Williams and Thomas Merton The Solace of Fierce Landscapes explores the impulse that has drawn seekers into the wilderness for centuries and offers eloquent testimony to the healing power of mountain silence and desert indifference

Spiritual Direction and the Care of Souls David G. Benner, Gary W. Moon, 2025-06-23 In recent years many Christian clergy laity and mental health professionals have rediscovered the ancient practices of spiritual direction Seen as a refreshing alternative to the techniques and limitations of modern psychology such practices offer new insights for pastoral care But many remain unclear on what spiritual direction is and whether its methods are applicable to their own clients and parishioners Spiritual direction is a practice of Christian soul care that is found most notably in the Catholic Orthodox and Episcopal traditions but is also present in Wesleyan Holiness Pentecostal charismatic social justice and Reformed communities Predating modern counseling and psychotherapy movements but sharing key principles and insights for spiritual formation spiritual direction offers significant resources for today's pastors, counselors, therapists, chaplains, and other caregivers attuned to the work of God in people's lives. In this landmark volume, editors Gary W. Moon and David G. Benner, along with a team of expert contributors, provide a comprehensive survey of spiritual direction in its myriad Christian forms. Specific chapters offer careful historical perspective and contemporary analysis of how Christians from various backgrounds have practiced spiritual direction, with particular attention to each tradition's definition of spiritual direction, the process of authentic transformation, the role of the spiritual director, indicators of mature spirituality, and other aspects of the spiritual direction process. Chapters also provide psychological and clinical insight into how spiritual direction is similar to, different from, and can be integrated with psychotherapy and pastoral counseling to help others experience spiritual transformation and union with God.
