such as being excommunicated in 1993 from the Dominican Order by Cardinal Ratzinger who later became Pope Benedict was because of Thomas Merton who sent Fox to Paris to complete a doctoral program in philosophy Fox found that Merton's journals, poetry and religious writings revealed a deeply ecumenical philosophy and a contemplative life experience similar to that of Meister Eckhart the fourteenth century mystic theologian who inspired Fox's own creation spirituality. It is little surprise to find Fox and Merton to be kindred spirits but the intersections Fox finds with Eckhart are intellectually profound, spiritually enlightening and delightfully engaging.

The Unicorn In The Sanctuary Randy England, 1992-03 Shows how New Age principles have infiltrated the Catholic Church being a combination of humanism, paganism, self-deification, Satanism and witchcraft, a far more dangerous movement than it appears. This is the first full length study of the impact of the New Age Movement on Catholicism. Clear and down to earth. Tells what it is, what is wrong with it, where it came from and what to do about it. Very revealing.

The Mystic Hours Wayne Teasdale, 2004 One reads not for information but for inspiration. The Physics of Angels Rupert Sheldrake, Matthew Fox, 2014-10-21 Fox an Episcopal priest and Sheldrake a biologist create a profound and intelligent vision of angels for the next millennium.

Confessions, Revised and Updated Matthew Fox, 2015-11-10 Matthew Fox's stirring autobiography Confessions reveals his personal intellectual and spiritual journey from altar boy to Dominican priest to his eventual break with the Vatican. Five new chapters in this revised and updated edition bring added perspective in light of the author's continued journey and his reflections on the current changes taking place in the Catholic church. Instead of living out his vows as a Dominican brother, Matthew Fox was expelled from the Order after 34 years by Cardinal Ratzinger who later became Pope Benedict XVI. Fox took this as a warning from the Church that henceforth thinkers should not think but get in line. It is from this anti-intellectual inquisition style mentality that the cover up of priestly pedophilia also grew as the Vatican appointed several generations of bishops and cardinals whose only criterion for selection was that they be uncritical yes men. Confessions tells the inside story of what it was like standing in front of the train when the Vatican was on the attack. It also reflects on the meaning of the encouragingly healthy papacy of Pope Francis but holds little hope for the institutional church. Rather, this book points to the main interest and accomplishments of the author's work to bring spirituality and prophetic warriorhood alive again in society and religion. Fox draws inspiration from great mystics of the past such as Hildegard of Bingen, a champion of the Divine Feminine and Meister Eckhart, a profoundly mystical and ecumenical champion of those without a voice and the return of the archetype of the Cosmic Christ alongside the teachings of the historical Jesus and the bringing forth of the wisdom traditions from all the world's spiritual traditions to stand up for eco justice, gender justice, economic justice and social justice.
