Splendour Postponed A Family At War With Itself:

Splendour Postponed - A Family at War with Itself Derek Rossitter, 2004-09 Bea is born with an artistic genius which is cruelly suppressed by her tyrant of a father. The father dies in circumstances for which her brother Simon bitterly lays the blame upon Bea. A terrible family rift ensues. Simon achieves great wealth and success in business. Meanwhile she receives support in developing her artistic talents from both her rich but eccentric aunt Jessica and Anthony Gabriel, a well-known artist. Anthony's ambition is to be elected to the Royal Academy but his achievements are never deemed to be quite sufficient. Although Anthony is very much the older, Bea from an early age has fallen deeply in love with him. Eventually she marries him, fired with an absolute determination to see that he does achieve what she is convinced to be his due. To this end she makes an amazing decision to conceal her own much superior work and devote herself to bringing out the potential she knows to be within him. This culminates in his painting a truly remarkable portrait of her which secures his election to the Academy with great acclaim. A reconciliation between Bea and Simon results. However, it is only when Anthony dies and Bea is married again, this time to a famous art critic, that the secret treasure house of her magnificent paintings is dramatically revealed. Great fame for her follows. But tragedy in the person of her errant godson Ambrose has always been lurking in the background. His sudden and unexpected reappearance from obscurity leads to a dramatic and tragic conclusion to the story. The tale unfolds against the background of two world wars and is played out in London, Paris, and rural Yorkshire and Kent.

The Greedy Pigeon the Hungry Porcupine & Friends Derek Rossitter, 2004-09 Twenty-six rhymes for children, younger and older, and perhaps for other people as well. A magnificent set of illustrations by Grace Horne and the provocatively moral but comic verses from Derek make this a very beautiful book and quite the most enjoyable piece of visual work we have published.

History of the War in the Peninsula William Francis Patrick Napier, 1836 Europe in the 19th Century C. A. Fyffe, 2018-01-19 On the morning of the 19th of April 1792, after weeks of stormy agitation in Paris, the Ministers of Louis XVI brought down a letter from the King to the Legislative Assembly of France. The letter was brief but significant. It announced that the King intended to appear in the Hall of Assembly at noon on the following day. Though the letter did not disclose the object of the King's visit, it was known that Louis had given way to the pressure of his Ministry and the national cry for war, and that a declaration of war against Austria was the measure which the King was about to propose in person to the Assembly. On the morrow the public thronged the hall; the Assembly broke off its debate at midday in order to be in readiness for the King. Louis entered the hall in the midst of deep silence and seated himself beside the President in the chair which was now substituted for the throne of France.
