Yijing first appeared as a divination text in Zhou dynasty China ca 1045-256 bce and later became a work of cosmology, philosophy and political theory as commentators supplied it with new meanings. While many English translations of the Yijing exist, none are paired with a historical commentary as thorough and methodical as that written by the Confucian scholar Cheng Yi who turned the original text into a coherent work of political theory. Mitosis: Facts and Questions M. Little, N. Paweletz, C. Petzelt, H. Ponstingl, D. Schroeter, H.-P. Zimmermann, V. Runnström-Reio, 2012-12-06. Two years ago, about twenty people gathered informally in our institute to discuss mitosis. We took this opportunity to try to separate the hard facts of mitosis, which are accepted by most people, from the soft ones which are still open for discussion. Surprisingly few hard facts survived with their reputation still intact. This result led us to organize a similar meeting on a larger scale. The outcome was the workshop Mitosis Facts and Questions, which was held at the German Cancer Research Center in Heidelberg from April 25-29, 1977. An introductory lecture was given for each of nine major topics, followed by an extensive discussion of facts, questions and future experiments. Further details were provided by posters. The proceedings of the meeting are published in this volume. We feel that many open questions and facts described here will provide stimulating ideas and a basis for further investigation of this fundamental process. The success of the workshop would not have been possible without the help of many people. We are very grateful to the German Cancer Research Center for its interest and assistance, and for the support of the Verein zur Förderung der Krebsforschung in Deutschland represented by Prof. Dr. h. c. K. H. Bauer, the ECBO European Cell Biology Organization and the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Zellbiologie. Our sincere thanks are also extended to our students and technicians for their enthusiastic help, and to Mrs. Joa for typing the manuscripts. A Woman's I Ching Diane Stein, 2012-04-11. Finally a feminist interpretation of the popular ancient text for divining the character of events. Stein's version reclaims the feminine or yin content of the ancient work and removes all oppressive language and imagery. Her interpretation envisions a healing world in which women can explore different roles free from the shadow of patriarchy. The Art of Splitting Stone Mary Elaine Gage, J. E. Gage, 2005. White Feminists and Contemporary Maternity D. Hallstein, 2010-03-29. This work explores matrophobia, the fear not of one's mother or of motherhood but of becoming one's mother in past and present. White feminist analyses of motherhood and mothering. By tracing white second wave feminism's strategic choice to organize first as sisters, then as daughters, O'Brien Hallstein argues matrophobia became embedded in past and continues to linger in contemporary feminist analyses. As a result, contemporary analyses reveal crucially important but limited understandings of contemporary motherhood and mothering. This important work concludes that matrophobia can be reduced and eliminated by reorienting analyses to mutual responsiveness between sisters and daughters. second and third wave feminists Introduction to Nuclear Reactor Physics Robert E.
