The Lunda Ndembu Style Change And Social Transformation In South Central Africa:

The Lunda-Ndembu James Anthony Pritchett, 2001 Pritchett anthropology African studies Boston U presents an account of the Lunda Ndembu people of northwestern Zambia The text is based upon archaeological data travel accounts colonial field reports and the scholarly studies of others as well as his own field research conducted intermittently over the course of 14 years He contends that despite much cultural borrowing in recent decades the Lunda people have an image of themselves that is essentially unchanged He also reflects on continuity and change in Africa c Book News Inc

The Objects of Life in Central Africa , 2013-09-15 In The Objects of Life in Central Africa the history of consumption and social change from 1840 until 1980 is explored By taking consumption as a vantage point the contributions deviate from and add to previous works which have mainly analysed issues of production from an economic and political perspective The chapters are broad ranging in temporal and geographical focus including contributions on Congo Zambia Zimbabwe and Angola Topics range from the social history of firearms to the perception of the railway and include contributions on sewing machines traders and advertising By looking at the socio economic political and cultural meaning and impact of goods the history of Central Africa is reassessed

Transforming Innovations in Africa Jan-Bart Gewald, André Leliveld, Iva Peša, 2012-11-21 Africa abounds with examples of material and immaterial innovations that were envisaged developed and designed elsewhere yet came to be innovatively and sometimes unexpectedly transformed in Africa The authors in this volume explore how external innovations products technologies services institutions and processes have been appropriated in African societies in order to be acceptable and relevant to local conditions expectations and demands Written from different disciplinary perspectives the chapters demonstrate the depth and richness of innovation in Africa with in some cases surprising outcomes The case studies presented are on subjects as diverse as the wine industry trading stores land reforms washing powder M Pesa cassava weddings international borders guest houses urban water supply car technology shallow wells and railways and blacksmithing

Living the End of Empire Jan-Bart Gewald, Marja Hinfelaar, Giacomo Macola, 2011-08-12 Building on the foundational work of the Rhodes Livingstone Institute the essays contained in Living the End of Empire offer a nuanced and complex picture of the late colonial period in Zambia The present volume based on untapped archival material and sources that have emerged in recent years throws new light on some of the historical trajectories that the teleological gaze of nationalist scholars tended to ignore or belittle By bringing to view the deep rooted tensions underlying the Zambian nationalist movement the painful dilemmas faced by chiefly and religious institutions and the contradictory experiences of European and Asian minorities Living the End of Empire draws inspiration from and contributes to a growing literature that is concerned with the study of social political and cultural forces that did not readily fit into the then dominant narratives of united anti colonial struggles

a more nuanced and complex picture of the late colonial period in Zambia than has hitherto been presented in nationalist histories

Friends for Life, Friends for Death James Anthony Pritchett, 2007 Transporting the reader to a place few have heard of to examine the lives of people few will ever meet Friends for Life Friends for Death is an accessible account of day to day life and social construction in contemporary rural Africa BOOK JACKET

Roads Through Mwinilunga Iva Peša, 2019-07-29 Roads through Mwinilunga provides a historical appraisal of social change in Northwest Zambia from 1750 until the present By looking at agricultural production mobility consumption and settlement patterns existing explanations of social change are reassessed Using a wide range of archival and oral history sources Iva Pe a shows the relevance of Mwinilunga to broader processes of colonialism capitalism and globalisation Through a focus on daily life this book complicates transitions from subsistence to market production and dichotomies between tradition and modernity Roads through Mwinilunga is a crucial addition to debates on historical and social change in Central Africa

Struggles for Home Stef Jansen, Staffan Löfving, 2009 Based on anthropological studies across the globe this book explores the experiences and contested meanings of home for people whose lives are characterized by migration related to varying forms of violence Taking seriously the political implications and exploitation of discourses of home in the transnational processes that connect yet differently affect the movement of people and capital it challenges the sedentarist assumption that territoriality and nation are necessarily the primary determinants of identification However it does not replace this sedentarism with a free floating placeless approach Instead through the detailed ethnography of actual experiences of displacement and emplacement it investigates the power sedentarist discourses may have to provide or prohibit hope In Struggles for Home the focus is turned onto hope aspiration and a sense of worth as necessary building blocks in the reconstruction of the social amidst the violence of political and economic transformation Research conducted in Sri Lanka Bosnia Herzegovina Zambia Cyprus the Palestinian West Bank Guatemala and amongst Romanians and Moroccans in Spain articulates a novel theoretical framework for the development of a critical political anthropology of one of the most controversial and fascinating issues of our time the remaking of home in migration Jacket

Christianity and Public Culture in Africa Harri Englund, 2011-08-15 Christianity and Public Culture in Africa takes readers beyond familiar images of religious politicians and populations steeped in spirituality It shows how critical reason and Christian convictions have combined in surprising ways as African Christians confront issues such as national constitutions gender relations and the continuing struggle with HIV AIDS The wide ranging essays included here explore rural Africa and the continent s major cities colonial and missionary legacies and mass media images in the twenty first century They also reveal the diversity of Pentecostalism in Africa and highlight the region s remarkable denominational diversity Scholars and students alike will find these essays timely and impressive The contributors demonstrate how the public significance of Christianity varies across time and place They explore rural Africa and the continent s major cities and colonial and missionary situations as well as mass mediated ideas and images in the twenty first century They also reveal the plurality of Pentecostalism in Africa and keep in view the continent s continuing denominational diversity Students and scholars will find these topical studies to be impressive in scope Contributors Barbara M Cooper Harri Englund Marja Hinfelaar Nicholas Kamau Goro Birgit Meyer Michael Perry Kweku Okyerefo Damaris Parsitau Ruth Prince James A Pritchett Ilana van Wyk
