within Inspired to Greatness Tracy Uloma Cooper, 2016-12-06 Is it possible for a woman to be empowered and be happy Inspired to Greatness A Feminine Approach to Healing the World explores the question from a research perspective utilizing the method of narrative analysis to examine women's one on one interviews What makes this book special is the focus on the narrative voice of the women participants which differentiates it from previous explorations and research Our participants are among those Western women who are a part of the vanguards who infiltrated the male dominated workforce and advanced toward significant professional empowerment The findings suggest that a fear based survival mode is keeping women who outwardly seem empowered from an inner feeling of empowerment and thus from happiness The participants spoke of being called to greater fulfillment in their lives and recognized that conscious active responsibility would be necessary to satisfy those needs though in many cases it remained unclear whether they would decide to act upon the realization or not It is of great importance that we pay attention to such women's interpretation of their experiences Society needs to attend to the findings we will explore within this book These results are critical to psychological health and reflect deeply on how to help women find the courage to move forward Because a healthy society relies on women rising owning their experience balancing their priorities and having access to steps for health it is clear that women's emotional mental physical and spiritual health would be improved through access to specific programs that will promote unconditional love integration and conscious awareness designed to access the individual's inner sage and as yet unrealized potentialities Tracy Cooper is a Ph D in Clinical Psychology specializing in integrative therapy and personal empowerment At the University of California Berkeley she was a psychotherapist within the Psychological Services department Presently she is a psychotherapist offering comprehensive care to patients with chronic medical conditions and serious mental illness As a community activist she is involved with several nonprofit organizations She is the founder of The Uloma Foundation she serves as a board member for Arts for All and manages a mental health program at Interfaith Community Services Tracy Cooper is an academic and literary author She contributed to the book What Women Want A Book for Men and she is the author of the children's book series Sophie Starchild

Vox Eurydice Margaret Ann Mendenhall, 2024-12-15 Vox Eurydice The Ascent of the Female Rescuer in German Language Opera is a mythological and depth psychological analysis written from a feminist perspective on the emergence of the theme of rescue stories and specifically plots where a female heroine saves a male character which arose in German language opera during the roughly one hundred years that spanned the lifetimes of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart Ludwig van Beethoven and Richard Wagner Margaret Ann Mendenhall argues that the German language works of these three musical giants grew out of the rescue story paradigm as an extension of Italian opera buffa and French opéra comique This is reflected in Mozart's Singspiele and Beethoven's one completed opera Fidelio considered the epitome of the German language rescue opera The author then examines Wagner's oeuvre not only his ten mature masterpieces but also three earlier operas and his unfinished pieces The author also posits that the need for the ascent of the female rescuer in German language opera was unconsciously tied into the desire of the people of the German speaking territories for a homeland and how the presence of this archetype subsided soon after a German nation was established in 1871 To see the author s interview about the book on the Myth Lit webinar click here <https://fatesandgraces.com/webinars/myth-lit-webinar-margaret-ann-mendenhall>
