The Magus A Complete System Of Occult Philosophy:

The Magus Francis Barrett, It has been a subject of ancient dispute whether or not the stars as second causes do so rule and influence man as to ingraft in his nature certain passions virtues propensities likewise if their site and configuration at this time do shew forth his future passions and pursuits and by their revolutions transits and directed aspects they point out the particular accidents of the body marriage sickness preferments and such like the which I have often revolved in my mind for many years past having been at all times in all places a warm advocate for stellary divination or astrology therefore in this place it is highly necessary that we examine how far this influence extends to man seeing that I fully admit that man is endowed with a free will from God which the stars can in no wise counteract And as there is in man the power and apprehension of all divination and wonderful things seeing that we have a complete system in ourselves therefore are we called the microcosm or little world for we carry a heaven in ourselves from our beginning for God hath sealed in us the image of himself and of all created beings we are the epitome therefore we must be careful lest we confound and mix one thing with another Nevertheless man as a pattern of the great world sympathizes with it according to the stars which agreeably to the Holy Scriptures are set for times and seasons and not as causes of this or that evil which may pervade kingdoms or private families although they do in some measure foreshew them yet they are in no wise the cause therefore I conceive in a wide different sense to what is generally understood that Stars rule men but awise manrules the stars to which I answer that the stars do not rule men according to the vulgar and received opinion as if the stars should stir up men to murders seditions broils lusts fornications adulteries drunkenness because they say Mars and Saturn being conjunct do this and much more and many other configurations and afflictions of the two great infortunes as they are termed when the benevolent planets Jupiter Venus and Sol happen to be detrimented or afflicted therefore then they say men influenced by them are most surely excited to the commission of the vices before named yet a wise man may by the liberty of his own free will make those affections and inclinations void and this they call To rule the stars but let them know according to the sense here understood first it is not in a wise man to resist evil inclinations but of the grace of God and we call none wise but such as are endued with grace for as we have said before all natural wisdom from the hands of man is foolishness in the sight of God which was not before understood to be a wise man fenced with grace for why should he rule the stars who has not any occasion to fear conquered inclinations therefore a natural wise man is as subject to the slavery of sin as others more ignorant than himself yet the stars do not incline him to sin God created the heavens without spot and pronounced them good therefore it is the greatest absurdity to suppose the stars by a continual inclining of us to this or that misdeed should be our tempters which we eventually make them if we admit they cause inclinations but know that it is not from without but within by sin that evil inclinations do arise according to the Scriptures Out of the heart of man proceed evil cogitations murmurs adulteries thefts murders so when man becomes depraved by sin and the indulgence of his gross and carnal appetite he then becomes the scat of the Infernal Powers which may be justly deemed a hell for then the bodily and fleshly sense obscures the bright purity and thinness of the spirit and he becomes the instrument of our spiritual enemy in the exercise of all infernal lusts and passions Therefore it is most necessary for us to know that we are to beware of granting or believing any effects from the influences of the stars more than they have naturally because there are many whom I have lately conversed with and great men too in this nation who readily affirm that the stars are the causes of any kinds of diseases inclinations and fortunes likewise that they blame the stars for all their misconduct and misfortunes The Magus Francis

Barrett,2025-09-12 The Magus Three Books of Occult Philosophy Areas explored include Natural Magic Alchemy Talismanic Magic Cabalistic and Ceremonial Magic as well as biographies of important figures such as Albertus Magnus Roger Bacon and John Dee Notable are the author s illustrations derived from ancient and magical texts This book remains much sought after by modern readers for the important source material it provides and it continues to be drawn on heavily for information on many areas of occult philosophy Een en ander over het z.g. "Gadé Tanah" in Midden-Java ,1923 The Magus

Francis Barret,2019-01-09 IN this Work which we have written chiefly for the information of those who are curious and indefatigable in their enquiries into occult knowledge we have at a vast labour and expence both of time and charges collected whatsoever can be deemed curious and rare in regard to the subject of our speculations in Natural Magic the Cabala Celestial and Ceremonial Magic Alchymy and Magnetism and have divided it into two Books sub divided into Parts to which we have added a third Book containing a biographical account of the lives of those great men who were famous and renowned for their knowledge shewing upon whose authority this Science of Magic is founded and upon what principles To which we have annexed a great variety of notes wherein we have impartially examined the probability of the existence of Magic both of the good and bad species in the earliest as well as in the latter ages of the world We have exhibited a vast number of rare experiments in the course of this Treatise many of which delivered in the beginning are founded upon the simple application of actives to passives the others are of a higher speculation The Magus Francis Barrett,2009-02 IN this Work which we have written chiefly for the information of those who are curious and indefatigable in their enquiries into occult knowledge we have at a vast labour and expence both of time and charges collected whatsoever can be deemed curious and rare in regard to the subject of our speculations in Natural Magic the Cabala Celestial and Ceremonial Magic Alchymy and Magnetism and have divided it into two Books sub divided into Parts to which we have added a third Book containing a biographical account of the lives of those great men who were famous and renowned for their knowledge shewing upon whose authority this Science of Magic is founded and upon what principles The Magus a Complete System of Occult Philosophy in Three Books Francis Barrett,2017-09-02 All three books of Francis Barrett s superb compendium of occult thought are presented in this single volume complete with the original charts and illustrations An excellent work which encompasses much of the occult lore to have emerged over the preceding centuries The Magus unites and presents

occultist and alchemical wisdom in an organized and exhaustive manner Francis Barrett designed this book to guide and imbue aspiring practitioners of the occult arts with a working knowledge of the rituals and materials required Commencing with Magic we are offered a comprehensive accounts of its capabilities and the tools needed for its use Natural magic is defined as are the many philters and potions which may be created and imbued with its essence Various historical examples of magicians who had for good or ill gained public notice for their practices are given The later chapters meanwhile concern the properties of magical stones such as the legendary Philosophers Stone and the arcane arts of combining creatures of nature and the sometimes monstrous results The Magus itself is termed the Celestial Intelligencer beginning with a basic account of the four elements we traverse each in more detail before delving into the more esoteric practices The symbolism of numbers and of the astronomical bodies of the heavens are detailed sometimes with the help of charts The second book offers an occultist account of the Magnetism distinct from the magnetism of physics the occult magnetism is instead defined by an attraction of two or more people to one another The various potions incantations and other practices used to draw people together or apart are listed with some consideration given to witchcraft The second book s later portions concern ceremonial magic whereby practitioners may call upon spirits for insight or other purposes Much of the book is concerned with the traits necessary of the magician and the preparatory environs necessary to summon such spirits Illustrations of these beings who are various in appearance are appended to these pages The third and final book offers a series of biographical accounts of those who led lives both active and relevant to occultism Figures such as Zoroaster Aristotle Apuleius and Henry Cornelius Agrippa each receive a memoir summarizing their significance and contribution to the field of occultism Working in the occult for most of his life Francis Barrett ambitiously aimed to collect translate and arrange the occult books of the previous centuries He hoped that occultism would regain great popularity much as it had enjoyed in the past and offered lessons and tutoring in the practices from his apartment in London Although The Magus escaped recognition and faded to obscurity it later came to the attention of French magician Eliphas Levi who brought it to renewed prominence decades after its author perished
