The Man I Killed:

The Reception of Blake in the Orient Steve Clark, Masashi Suzuki, 2006-04-01 This volume brings together research from international scholars focusing attention on the longevity and complexity of Blake's reception in Japan and elsewhere in the East. It is designed as not only a celebration of his art and poetry in new and unexpected contexts but also to contest the intensely nationalistic and parochial Englishness of his work and in broader terms the inevitable passivity with which Romanticism and other Western intellectual movements have been received in the Orient.

A Trauma Artist Mark A. Heberle, 2001-04 Based on recent conversations with Tim O'Brien previously published interviews and new readings of all his works including Tomcat in Love, this book is the first study to concentrate on the role and representation of trauma as the central focus of all O'Brien's works.

Book jacket

Ernst Lubitsch Scott Eyman, 2015-04-21 Highly recommended Library Journal. The only full length biography of legendary film director Ernst Lubitsch, the director of such Hollywood classics as Trouble in Paradise, Ninotchka, and The Shop Around the Corner. In this groundbreaking biography of Ernst Lubitsch, undeniably one of the most important and influential film directors and artists of all time, critic and biographer Scott Eyman, author of the critically acclaimed New York Times bestseller John Wayne, examines not just the films Lubitsch created but explores as well the life of the man, a life full of both great successes and overwhelming insecurities. The result is a fascinating look at a man and an era. Hollywood's Golden Age. Born in Berlin and transported to Hollywood in the 1920s with the help of Mary Pickford, Lubitsch brought with him a level of sophistication and subtlety previously unknown to American movie audiences. He was quickly established as a director of unique quality and distinction. He captivated audiences with his unique touch, creating a world of fantasy in which men are tall and handsome, unlike Lubitsch himself, and humorously adept at getting women into bed, and where all the women are beautiful and charming and capable of giving as well as receiving love. He revived the flagging career of Marlene Dietrich and in Ninotchka created Greta Garbo's most successful film. When movie buffs speak of the Lubitsch touch, they refer to a sense of style and taste, humor and humanity that defined the films of one of Hollywood's all time great directors. In the history of the medium, no one has ever quite equaled his unique talent. Written with the cooperation of an extraordinary ensemble of eyewitnesses and unprecedented access to the files of Paramount Pictures, this is an enthralling biography as rich and diverse as its subject, sure to please film buffs of all types, especially those who champion Lubitsch as one of the greatest filmmakers ever.
