The Mandrake And The Rhemese:

Selected Works of Jean de La Fontaine Jean de La Fontaine, 2020-09-28 ONCE more permit me nuns and this the last I can t resist whatever may have passed But must relate what often I ve been told Your tales of convent pranks are seldom cold They have a grace that no where else we find And somehow better seem to please designed Another then we ll have which three will make Three did I say tis four or I mistake Let s count them well The GARD NER first we ll name Then comes the ABBESS whose declining frame Required a youth her malady to cure A story thought perhaps not over pure And as to SISTER JANE who d got a brat I cannot fancy we should alter that These are the whole and four s a number round You ll probably remark tis strange I ve found Such pleasure in detailing convent scenes Tis not my whim but TASTE that thither leans And if you d kept your breviary in view Tis clear you d nothing had with this to do We know howe er tis not your fondest care So quickly to our hist ry let s repair A CHARMING youth would frequent visits pay To nuns whose convent near his dwelling lay And mong the sisters one his person saw Who by her eyes would fain attention draw Smiles she bestowed and other complaisance But not a single step would he advance By old and young he greatly was admired Sighs burst around but none his bosom fired and studies these authors within the larger context of Latin American culture The book includes entries for men and women and for authors from Latin American countries as well as Latino writers from the United States The entries are written by roughly 60 expert contributors from Latin America the U S and Europe
