screenplay of American Luchadore Can Ray an aspiring luchadore save the world from an evil CEO intent on hiring Hell's hitman and creating Hell on Earth Or will he just get a real job Magic Trees of the Mind Marian Diamond, Janet Hopson, 1999-01-01 Cutting edge scientific research has shown that exposure to the right kind of environment during the first years of life actually affects the physical structure of a child's brain vastly increasing the number of neuron branches the magic trees of the mind that help us to learn think and remember At each stage of development the brain's ability to gain new skills and process information is refined As a leading researcher at the University of California at Berkeley Marion Diamond has been a pioneer in this field of research Now Diamond and award winning science writer Janet Hopson present a comprehensive enrichment program designed to help parents prepare their children for a lifetime of learning Homo Ludens as a Comic Character in Selected American Films Artur Skweres, 2016-10-25 This book reveals the hitherto critically disregarded ludic elements in popular American comedy films building on and expanding the theories developed by Johan Huizinga in his classic study Homo Ludens 1938 and Roger Caillois in Les jeux et les hommes 1958 To address the lack of attention paid to the play principle in film comedy studies this book focuses exclusively on the elements typical of play that can be found in movies It introduces two new categories describing play neiros and pragma which allow analysis of how play in comedies is influenced by the relations between the player and non players The text is supplemented by the use of the author's drawings which because of their analytical and selective nature are used as a tool for visual study The play principle has a long tradition in American humor and the films examined here were chosen for their popularity and wide appeal often acting as vehicles for Hollywood stars e.g. Chevy Chase Dan Aykroyd Bill Murray Steve Martin Eddie Murphy Goldie Hawn Mike Myers Jackie Chan or Chris Tucker The actors' status allowed the filmmakers to construct situations in which the protagonists distanced themselves from the fictional situation It is argued that the playful detachment from reality typifying many of the fictional characters portrayed by actors with star status is characteristic of the play principle in film Another major consideration is the hotly debated notion of the accomplishment of goals in playful activities and the book strongly supports the position that in narratives play can but does not have to yield important results The introduction of the categories of neiros and pragma in play serves to highlight the complex relation between playfulness and practicality in the films discussed Building on a comprehensive analysis of the ludic elements in selected popular American comedies the book makes an important contribution to film studies providing a unique perspective through its focus on the concept of homo ludens as a comic hero
