Emily G. Mereness

The Mama Stories:

The Mama Stories Lolette Kuby, 1995-01-01 Mama's Stories for Little People Laura J. Rittenhouse, 1886 Mama's Story Emily G. Mereness, 2014-06-02 This is a woman's survival story that begins with life in Europe, loss of her father, convicted of being a spy and sent to Siberia, her flight to Poland where she becomes a prisoner of the Germans. She survives labor farms, a concentration camp, and an abusive relationship in the U.S. The Mama Sutra Anne Cushman, 2019-04-16 A beautifully written and self-revealing memoir of motherhood in all its messy glory as a spiritual practice by a longtime yoga and dharma teacher. Tara Brach, author of Radical Acceptance. Sutra is the Sanskrit name for a short spiritual teaching, and it comes from the same root as the English word suture or stitch. This story of motherhood as a path to awakening says yoga and meditation teacher Anne Cushman an homage to the long threads that run through all human lives, stitching up what's shredded in our hearts. The Mama Sutra spans an eighteen-year journey through motherhood as a spiritual practice, chronicling Cushman's first pregnancy, her daughter's tragic stillbirth, the joyful birth of her son, the home retreat of early motherhood, the challenges of parenthood, the diagnosis and gifts of her son's developmental differences, the meltdown of her nuclear family, and its reconfiguration into a new and joyful form, and more. This is a powerful story of the rawness and beauty of life. Mama's New Bible Stories from the Old and New Testaments Emily G. Nesbitt, 1861 The Voice of the Mother Jo Malin, 2000 Analyzing this narrative practice, Malin examines ten texts by women who seem particularly compelled to tell their mothers' stories. Each author is in fact able to write her own autobiography only by using a narrative form that contains her mother's story at its core. These texts raise interesting questions about autobiography as a genre and about a feminist writing practice that resists and subverts the dominant literary tradition. Seventy-Five Stories for the Worship Hour Margaret White Eggleston, 1929 Connecting with Kids Through Stories Melissa Nichols, Denise B. Lacher, Joanne C. May, Todd Nichols, 2011-12-15 This is an accessible guide to using therapeutic stories to help connect with troubled adopted children. It demonstrates how parents and professionals can create their own stories to help children heal and explains the theory behind the therapy. This second edition includes updated research and full sample stories. the stories my children don't want to hear Peggy Brooks, 2012-12-08 Short stories of Peggy Henry's childhood in southeast Arkansas. Connecting with Kids Through Stories Denise B. Lacher, Todd Nichols, Joanne C. May, 2005 Children whose early development has been damaged by abuse or neglect are notoriously difficult to reach. Through many years of therapeutic work with adopted children and their families, the Family Attachment Center of Minnesota has developed an exciting and innovative technique which uses stories as the main mode for helping parents to communicate and connect with their troubled children. Connecting with Kids through Stories is an accessible guide to Family Attachment Narrative Therapy for the parents of adopted or fostered children and for the professionals who work with them. Providing a thorough theoretical grounding and detailed information on therapeutic techniques and how to assess progress, the book shows parents how to create their own therapeutic stories to promote increased attachment and improved behavior in their child The authors describe how different kinds of narratives can help with specific difficulties and illustrate their techniques with the story of a fictional family who develop their own narratives to help their adopted child heal The Family Attachment and Counseling Center of Minnesota works to promote the growth and healthy functioning of individuals and families through professional guidance with a particular emphasis on services for children The Center s Family Attachment Narrative Therapy program has been especially developed to help children whose development has been compromised by early life trauma and attachment relationship difficulties
