

South Boston Halifax County Va. 1844

Mrs. Matthews

Dear Sir - about the 17th of April I put a negro man in the hands of W. S. Davis of your place for sale, supposing negroes would sell higher in the country than the city - In a few days before he had an opportunity to sell as he informed us, the great excitement arose in the country, and I immediately instructed him not to attempt to sell at all for the present - to hire the negro out until there was a change in the times - I have written to him several times since he received the negro at Farmville, but can hear nothing from him or the boy - The boy's name is Jemius. It is possible as Davis has a good deal of business he may be gone home or in these warlike times he may have omitted to come off.

My object in writing to you is to get you to enquire into the matter & give me such information as you can get - If the boy is turned out I am satisfied he can remain at present, if not I will be obliged to you or Mrs. Davis if you will give him a pass to return home immediately. He knows the way very well I can walk. Please reply by the return mail & you will much oblige yours truly
