McDougall's wry compelling and layered account of the day to day of rice growing on the farm that her father inherited. In that setting she discovers a rich universe of words in the Great Depression comes of age during World War II and finds her way alongside that whole quirky compelling cast of characters that comprised her kin. In this conflicted ironic southern but universal account of betrayal heartbreak loss and joy the vagaries and the grace of the land join forces with the power of money as family bonds are both forged and dissolved. Deeply felt unsentimental and often humorous Daddy's Money presents McDougall's life and the lives of her relatives in the way that all our lives are eventually framed as stories. When all else is lost the author maintains the stories remain. Successful Writing, 1942 Moore's Rural New Yorker, 1912 New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art, 1968 The California Countryman, 1917 World Authors, 1995-2000

Mari Rich, Olivia J. Smith, Clifford Thompson, 2003. Representing a broad range of ethnic diversity these in depth profiles present fascinating accounts of lives and careers the circumstances under which works were produced and their literary significance. Each profile also includes critical evaluation a list of the author's principal works with date first published a list of major critical works and a portrait or photograph where available. New York Magazine, 1996-04-29. New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.
