as well as top nutritionists biopsychologists and neurologists I figured that if I understood the major functions of the brain and how it is supposed to take in process and respond to stimulation I could discover how SPD interferes with these functions Understanding the whole picture the combination of body brain and nutritional health led me to embrace the Sensory Diet In this book I share the keys of a well balanced nutritional diet and the activities and exercises that truly work Use the resources in this book to create a whole picture of your own child's conditions and customize a Sensory Diet for him/her If you're the parent teacher relative or friend of a sensory kid The Sensory Processing Diet will give you unique insight into his or her world Reading it was a breath of fresh air as I could relate to so many of her parenting struggles and found her recommended interventions to be both doable and helpful CAMERON KLEIMO sensory mom Chynna Laird has written a sensational book about a little known disorder but one that is becoming increasingly more identified in children As a child psychologist I found the book to be interesting informative and complete I recommend it highly to parents and professionals I loved it LAURIE ZELINGER PhD ABPP RPT S board certified psychologist author of Please Explain Anxiety to Me I work with many children in play therapy that also experience sensory issues The Sensory Diet gives an in depth look at contributors to SPD what types of treatments are available and adjustments families can make so that a child with SPD can cope in life in a way that he/she hasn't understood before I wholeheartedly recommend it to therapists and parents JILL OSBORNE EDS LPC CPCS RPTS author of Sam Feels Better Now CHYNNA LAIRD is a mother of four a freelance writer blogger editor and award winning author Her passion is helping children and families living with Sensory Processing Disorder SPD mental and/or emotional struggles and other special needs She's authored two children's books two memoirs a parent to parent resource book a Young Adult novella a Young Adult paranormal suspense novel series two New Adult contemporary novels and an adult suspense thriller Website www.chynnalairdauthor.ca From Loving Healing Press www.LHPress.com Inexpensive Science Experiments for Young Children, Grades PK - K Englehart, 2012-10-22 This series makes science fun for both you and your students Inexpensive Science Experiments for Young Children Grades PreK-K is organized according to national science standards and includes inquiry based learning with hands on and minds on activities There are reproducible learning games that tap into science literacy initiatives and Project 2061 Experiments on light and shadow magnets and plants and animals are just a few of the inexpensive and engaging activities that will spark student learning Touch Laura U. Marks, 2002 In Touch Laura U. Marks develops a critical approach more tactile than visual an intensely physical and sensuous engagement with works of media art that enriches our understanding and experience of these works and of art itself These critical theoretical and personal essays serve as a guide to developments in nonmainstream media art during the past ten years sexual representation debates documentary ethics the shift from analog to digital media a new social obsession with smell Marks takes up well known artists like experimental filmmaker Ken Jacobs and mysterious animators the Brothers Quay and introduces groundbreaking lesser known film video and digital artists From this emerges a materialist theory an embodied erotic relationship to art and to the world Marks's approach leads to an appreciation of the works mortal bodies film's volatile emulsion video's fragile magnetic base crash prone Net art it also offers a productive alternative to the popular understanding of digital media as virtual and immaterial Weaving a continuous fabric from philosophy fiction science dreams and intimate experience Touch opens a new world of art media to readers      Sensory Play Sue Gascoyne, 2016-05-09

Sensory Play draws upon current research findings and observations to present an informative and practical guide to maximising children's sensory play opportunities This guide enables practitioners to understand the values and benefits of sensory play incorporating case studies and current research findings to make practical links to the EYFS Sensory play is set within a wider context highlighting links to child development theories This title explains how sensory play can be a valuable tool in delivering curriculum outcomes in a wide variety of settings      The Promise Robert Crais, 2015-11-10

Elvis Cole and Joe Pike are joined by Suspect heroes LAPD K 9 Officer Scott James and his German shepherd Maggie in this heart stopping thriller from 1 New York Times bestselling author Robert Crais Elvis Cole and Joe Pike keep their promises Even if it could get them killed Elvis Cole is hired to find a woman who's disappeared a seemingly ordinary case until he learns the missing woman is an explosives expert and worked for a Defense Department contractor Meanwhile LAPD K 9 Officer Scott James and his patrol dog Maggie track a fugitive to a house filled with explosives and a dead body As the two cases intertwine they all find themselves up against shadowy arms dealers and corrupt officials and the very woman they promised to save may be the cause of their own deaths      Dog Science Unleashed Jodi Wheeler-Toppen, 2018

Courtship in Georgian England was a decisive moment in the life cycle often imagined as a tactical game Sally Holloway uses a rich selection of material and written sources to explore the emotional experience of courtship between Georgian men and women how love developed into a commercial industry and what happened when engagements went awry      Memory, Mobility, and Material Culture

Chiara Giuliani, Kate Hodgson, 2022-11-18 With a focus on the object and where it is situated in time memory and space mobility Memory Mobility and Material Culture embodies a multidisciplinary and cross disciplinary approach The chapters track the movement of the objects and their owner's within and between continents countries cities and families Objects have always been considered with an eye to their worth economic aesthetic and or functional If that worth is diminished their meaning and value disappear they are just things Yet things can still fulfil functions in our daily lives they hold symbolic potential from personal memory triggers to focal points of public ritual and religion from collectors obsession to symbols of loss displacement and violence By bringing into dialogue the work of specialists in ethnology art history architecture and design literature languages cultures and heritage studies this volume considers how displaced memory the memory of refugees migrants and their descendants of those who have moved from the countryside to the city of those who have faced personal upheaval and profound social change those who have been forced into exile or experienced major personal or collective loss can become embodied in material culture This book is important reading to those interested in cultural and social history and cultural studies     Trauma-Responsive Strategies for Early Childhood Katie Statman-Weil,Rashelle Hibbard,2020-09-01 Trauma Responsive Strategies for Early Childhood offers an overview of trauma and its impact on young children as well as specific strategies and techniques educators and administrators can use to create classroom and school communities that improve the quality of care for this vulnerable population The authors have synthesized research based information in an accessible way Focusing on the four different domains of cognitive language physical and social emotional the authors use vignettes to explore how trauma can be expressed in the classroom and what teachers can do about it

Pennsylvania Game News ,2007     Empires of the Senses Andrew J. Rotter,2019-06-21 When encountering unfamiliar environments in India and the Philippines the British and the Americans wrote extensively about the first taste of mango and meat spiced with cumin the smell of excrement and coconut oil the feel of humidity and rough cloth against skin the sound of bells and insects and the appearance of dark skinned natives and lepers So too did the colonial subjects they encountered perceive the agents of empire through their senses and their skins Empire of course involved economics geopolitics violence a desire for order and greatness a craving for excitement and adventure It also involved an encounter between authorities and subjects an everyday process of social interaction political negotiation policing schooling and healing While these all concerned what people thought about each other perceptions of others as Andrew Rotter shows were also formed through seeing hearing touching smelling and tasting In this book Rotter offers a sensory history of the British in India from the formal imposition of their rule to its end 1857 1947 and the Americans in the Philippines from annexation to independence 1898 1946 The British and the Americans saw themselves as the civilizers of what they judged backward societies and they believed that a vital part of the civilizing process was to properly prioritize the senses and to ensure them against offense or affront Societies that looked shabby were noisy and smelly felt wrong and consumed unwholesome food in unmannerly ways were unfit for self government It was the duty of allegedly more sensorily advanced Anglo Americans to educate them before formally withdrawing their power Indians and Filipinos had different ideas of what constituted sensory civilization and to some extent resisted imperial efforts to impose their own versions What eventually emerged were compromises between these nations sensory regimes A fascinating and original comparative work Empires of the Senses offers new perspectives on imperial history     Understanding Aesthetics for the Merchandising and Design Professional Ann Marie

Fiore,2010-04-08 Bridging the gap between the study of aesthetics and its application in the merchandising and design environments the 2nd Edition of Understanding Aesthetics presents a research based focus on the concepts of aesthetics and their effect on product value and consumer behavior The multisensory approach to studying the elements and principles of design helps students master the underlying factors of successful design and learn how products and their promotional
