Telling Memories Among Southern Women Domestic Workers And Their Employers In The Segregated South:

Telling Memories Among Southern Women, 2002 In Telling Memories Among Southern Women Susan Tucker presents a revealing collection of oral history narratives that explore the complex sometimes enigmatic bond between black female domestic workers and their white employers from the turn of the twentieth century to the civil rights revolution of the 1960s Based on interviews with forty two women of both races from the Deep South these narratives express the full range of human emotions and successfully convey the ties that united and the tensions and conflicts that separated these two mutually dependent groups of women The publisher Telling Memories Among Southern Women Susan Tucker, 2002-04-01 In Telling Memories Among Southern Women Susan Tucker presents a revealing collection of oral history narratives that explore the complex sometimes enigmatic bond between black female domestic workers and their white employers from the turn of the twentieth century to the civil rights revolution of the 1960s Based on interviews with forty two women of both races from the Deep South these narratives express the full range of human emotions and successfully convey the ties that united and the tensions and conflicts that separated these two mutually dependent groups of women Neither Separate Nor Equal Barbara Smith, 1999 The diverse lives of contemporary Southern women Negotiating Boundaries of Southern Womanhood Janet L. Coryell, 2000 In eleven thought provoking essays covering the early nineteenth through the early twentieth centuries Negotiating Boundaries of Southern Womanhood examines the complex intersections of race class and gender and the ways in which southern women dealt with the powers that be and in some instances became those powers Elitism status and class were always filtered through a prism of race and gender in the South and women of both races played an important role in maintaining as well as challenging the hierarchies that existed to claim a share of power for themselves in a male dominated world Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Sisterly Networks Catherine Clinton, 2020-10-06 Tracing the development of the field of southern women s history over the past half century Sisterly Networks shows how pioneering feminists laid the foundation for a strong community of sister scholars and delves into the work of an organization central to this movement the Southern Association for Women Historians SAWH Launched in 1970 the SAWH provided programming mentoring fundraising and outreach efforts to support women historians working to challenge the academic establishment In this book leading scholars reflect on their own careers in southern history and their experiences as women historians amid this pathbreaking expansion and revitalization of the field Their stories demonstrate how women created new archival collections expanded historical categories to include gender and sexuality reimagined the roles and significance of historical women wrote pioneering monographs and mentored future generations of African American women and other minorities who entered the academy and contributed to public discourse Providing a lively roundtable discussion of the state of the field contributors comment on present and future work environments and current challenges in higher education and academic publishing They offer profound and provocative insights on the ways scholars

Rethinking Marxism David F. Ruccio, 2021-09-08 In this issue class revolution is discovered in a perhaps unlikely context the paid domestic labor of African American women Analyzing the changing economic relationship between African American women and white households from end of slavery to the late 1970s Cecilia

Rio uses the concepts of Marxian class analysis and a wealth of empirical evidence to demonstrate that African American women were historical agents of fundamental class transformation Also in this edition articles on Humanities Surplus Communism to Capitalism Categories of Class Analysis Contingent Commodification s of Labor Power and more Black Subjects in Africa and Its Diasporas B. Talton,Q. Mills,2011-08-15 Through the research and experiences of 16 scholars whose native homes span ten countries this collection shifts the discussion of belonging and affinity within Africa and its diaspora toward local perceptions and the ways in which these notions are asserted or altered In Fashion: Culture, Commerce, Craft, and Identity ,2022-01-10 For the contributors to In Fashion Culture Commerce Craft and Identity being in fashion is about self presentation defining how fashion is presented in the visual written and performing arts and about design craft manufacturing packaging marketing and archives The book s international cast of authors engage in fashion from various disciplinary professional and creative perspectives i e anthropology archaeology art history cultural studies design environmental studies fashion studies history international relations literature marketing philosophy sociology technology and theatre In Fashion has five sections Fashioning Representations Texts Images and Performances Fashionable Shopping Luxury and Vintage Fashion s Materials Craft Industry and Innovation Museum Worthy Fashion and the Archive Fashioning Cultural Identities Case Studies In Service and Servitude Christine B. N. Chin,1998 Examining how the shared interests of state elites and the middle classes rationalize mistreatment of domestic workers the author argues that the premodern exploitation of migrant domestic workers is at odds with the global expansion of open markets and free trade Black Workers Remember Michael K. Honey,2001 A compelling collection of oral histories of black working class men and women from Memphis Covering the 1930s to the 1980s they tell of struggles to unionize and to combat racism on the shop floor and in society at large They also reveal the origins of the civil rights movement in the activities of black workers from the Depression onward Encyclopedia of Race, Ethnicity, and Society Richard T. Schaefer,2008-03-20 This encyclopedia offers a comprehensive look at the roles race and ethnicity play in society and in our daily lives Over 100 racial and ethnic groups are described with additional thematic essays offering insight into broad topics that cut across group boundaries and which impact on society African American Urban History since World War II Kenneth L. Kusmer,Joe W. Trotter,2009-08-01 Historians have devoted surprisingly little attention to African American urban history ofthe postwar period especially compared with earlier decades Correcting this imbalance African American Urban History since World War II features an exciting mix of seasoned scholars and fresh new voices whose combined efforts provide the first comprehensive assessment of this important subject The first of this volume s five groundbreaking sections focuses on black migration and Latino immigration examining tensions and alliances that emerged between African Americans and other groups Exploring the challenges of residential segregation and deindustrialization later sections tackle such topics as the real estate industry s discriminatory practices the movement of middle class blacks to the suburbs and the influence of black urban activists on national employment and social welfare policies Another group of contributors examines these themes through the lens of gender chronicling deindustrialization's disproportionate impact on women and women's leading roles in movements for social change Concluding with a set of essays on black culture and consumption this volume fully realizes its goal of linking local transformations with the national and global processes that affect urban class and race relations
