The Mestizo/a Community of the Spirit Oscar Garcia-Johnson, 2009-01-01 This work models a creative exercise in ecclesiology based on a Latino a practical theology of the Spirit which designs theological discourse based on its encounter with the Spirit in human culture

Hence it is a theology appreciative of and attentive to the multiple matrices and intersections of the Spirit with cultures Garcia Johnson offers an appreciative and critical analysis of the uses of culture among Latino theologians followed by the proposal for a postmodern Spirit friendly cultural paradigm based on the narratives of the cross and the Pentecost He develops a practical theology for a Latino postmodern ecclesiology based on three native Latino theological concepts: mestizaje, accompaniment, and ma ana eschatology. The resulting ecclesial construct, The Mestizo Community of Ma ana, reflects a transforming ma ana vision and models the visible cruciform community in which the transforming praxis and historical transcendence of the Christ Spirit works from within. The work sets forth practical guidelines for implementation of the ecclesial construct in the urban context of devastated communities and offers suggestions for further development in Latino theology.

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale. Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism, the social, the postmodern, and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways. The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch, using jazz as a metaphor, writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences, combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction. A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts. The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy, global, and narrative, deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story.

The Rise and Demise of Black Theology Alistair Kee, 2017-11-28 Black Theology emerged in the 1960s as a response to black consciousness. In South Africa it is a critique of power; in the UK it is a political theology of black culture. The dominant form of Black Theology has been in the USA, originally influenced by Black Power and the critique of white racism. Since then it claims to have broadened its perspective to include oppression on the grounds of race, gender, and class. In this book the author contests this claim, especially by Womanist black women. Theology, Black and Womanist Theologies, present inadequate analyses of race and gender and no account at all of class, economic oppression. With a few notable exceptions, Black Theology in the USA repeats the mantras of the 1970s: the discourse of modernity Content with American capitalism it fails to address the source of the impoverishment of black Americans at home Content with a romantic imagine of Africa this African American movement fails to defend contemporary Africa against predatory American global ambitions Introducing Liberative Theologies Miguel A.
