Terms Of Endearment Hollywood Romantic Comedy Of The 1980s And 1990s:

Terms of Endearment Peter William Evans, Celestino Deleyto, 1998 This book explores the complex ways in which recent cultural discourses on gender and sexuality have found their way into the apparently inflexible structure of romantic comedy

The Hollywood Romantic Comedy Leger Grindon, 2011-03-01 The most up to date study of the Hollywood romantic comedy film from the development of sound to the twenty first century this book examines the history and conventions of the genre and surveys the controversies arising from the critical responses to these films Provides a detailed interpretation of important romantic comedy films from as early as 1932 to movies made in the twenty first century Presents a full analysis of the range of romantic comedy conventions including dramatic conflicts characters plots settings and the function of humor Develops a survey of romantic comedy movies and builds a canon of key films from Hollywood s classical era right up to the present day Chapters work as discrete studies as well as within the larger context of the book

Feel-Bad Postfeminism Catherine McDermott, 2022-06-02 In Feel Bad Postfeminism Catherine McDermott provides crucial insight into what growing up during empowerment postfeminism feels like and outlines the continuing postfeminist legacy of resilience in girlhood coming of age narratives McDermott s analysis of Gone Girl 2012 Girls 2012 2017 and Appropriate Behaviour 2012 illuminates a major cultural turn in which the pleasures of postfeminist empowerment curdle into a profound sense of rage and resentment By contrast close examination of The Hunger Games 2008 2010 Girlhood 2014 and Catch Me Daddy 2014 reveals that contemporary genres are increasingly constructing girls as uniquely capable of resiliently overcoming and adapting to unforgiving social conditions She develops an affective vocabulary to better understand contemporary modes of defiant transformative and relational resilience as well as a framework through which to expand on further modes that are specific to the genres they emerge within Overall the book suggests that exploration of the affective dimensions of girls and women s culture can offer new insights into how coming of age girlhood and femininity are culturally produced in the aftermath of postfeminism

From France With Love Mary Harrod, 2015-05-21 Love stories have always been at the heart of French cinema but romantic comedies have until recently been absent from it In 2001 the global success of Amélie catalysed a major development in the Western world s second largest film industry the appropriation of the Hollywood romantic comedy genre or Rom Com à l'Américaine In From France with Love Mary Harrod explores this contemporary phenomenon examining both local hits and films with international status Using socio cultural data box office figures and analysis of critical reception she reveals the ways in which these films mirror shifting attitudes towards gender roles within French society as well as the increasingly important interrelation between French national cinema and transnational filmmaking paradigms

Love in Contemporary Cinema Benjamín de la Pava Vélez, 2021-07-18 This book looks at social representations of romantic love as portrayed in films and interpreted by their audiences using cinema as a means for analysing the state of romantic love today and the touchpoints and disconnects between its representation on screen and the lived experiences of film audiences Through a media sociology lens the book draws on analysis of five contemporary romantic films and the meanings brought to and made from them by socially and economically diverse audiences Employing both textual analysis and primary interviews the book contests overly pessimistic perspectives on modern intimacy while acknowledging and exploring some of the challenges woes and changes that romantic love is experiencing in late capitalism Concerns and debates over monogamy the teleology romantic love and the division of labour in relationships percolate in this book s examination of how audiences responses to these films reflect their attitudes and expectations regarding romantic love This book will have great resonance for scholars and students of not just film studies and media studies but also audience studies media sociology philosophy gender and sexuality Imagining "We" in the Age of "I" Mary Harrod, Suzanne Leonard, Diane Negra, 2021-07-29 Winner MeCCSA Edited Collection of the Year MeCCSA Outstanding Achievement Awards 2022 In the early twenty first century shifts in gender and sexuality work and mobility patterns and especially technology have provoked interest in perceived threats to social bonding on a global scale This edited collection explores the fracturing of couple culture but also its persistence Looking at a variety of media sites including film television popular print fiction new media and new technologies this volume s diverse range of contributors examine how mediated scenes of intimacy proliferate while real life experiences are cast in a newly uncertain light The collection thus challenges a latent but growing tendency towards perceptions of romantic decline in a variety of cultural contexts and with attention to the impact of COVID 19 This is an accessible and timely collection suitable for scholars in gender studies media cultural studies and communication studies

Nancy Meyers Deborah Jermyn, 2017-07-27 Nancy Meyers is acknowledged as the most commercially successful woman filmmaker of all time described by Daphne Merkin in The New York Times on the release of It s Complicated as a singular figure in Hollywood she may in fact be the most powerful female writer director producer currently working Yet Meyers remains a director who alongside being widely dismissed by critics has been largely absent in scholarly accounts both of contemporary Hollywood cinema and of feminism and film Despite Meyers impressive track record for turning a profit including the biggest box office return ever achieved by a woman filmmaker at that time for What Women Want in 2000 and a multifaceted career as a writer producer director dating back to her co writing Private Benjamin in 1980 Meyers has been oddly neglected by Film Studies to date Including Nancy Meyers in the Bloomsbury Companions to Contemporary Filmmakers rectifies this omission giving her the kind of detailed consideration and recognition she warrants and exploring how notwithstanding the challenges authorship holds for feminist film studies Meyers can be situated as a skilled auteur This book proposes that Meyers box office success the consistency of style and theme across her films and the breadth of her body of work as a writer producer director across more than three decades at the forefront of Hollywood thus importantly bridging the second third waves of feminism make her a key contemporary US filmmaker Structured to meet the needs of both the student and scholar Jermyn s volume situates Meyers within this historical and critical context exploring the distinctive qualities of her body of work the reasons behind the pervasive resistance to it and new ways of understanding her films American Postfeminist Cinema Michele Schreiber, 2014-03-11 In light of their tremendous gains in the political and professional sphere and their ever expanding options why is it that most contemporary American films aimed at women still focus almost exclusively on their pursuit of a heterosexual romantic relationship American Postfeminist Cinema explores this question and is the first book to examine the symbiotic relationship between heterosexual romance and postfeminist culture The book argues that since 1980 postfeminism's most salient tensions and anxieties have been reflected and negotiated in the American romance film Case studies of a broad range of Hollywood and independent films reveal how the postfeminist romance cycle is intertwined with contemporary women's ambivalence and broader cultural anxieties about women's changing social and political status Chick Flicks Suzanne Ferriss, Mallory Young, 2008-03-03 With 11 original essays this edited volume examines chick flicks from An Affair to Remember to Legally Blonde within the larger context of chick culture as well as women's cinema Representing the Family Deborah Chambers, 2001-08-09 Looking at how the family is represented by the media and by scrutinizing the manner in which it is regulated this book uncovers the ways in which academic research and welfare policy have colluded with political rhetoric and the popular media to re-invent a mythical ideal family Representing the Family combines perspectives from a range of theories including media and cultural studies sociology and social history to show how certain types of family life are pathologised highlights the discrepancies between contemporary representations of the ideal family and lived experience and compares the British experience with that of the United States and Australia Reconsidering Social Identification Abdul R. JanMohamed, 2020-11-29 This volume investigates how four socially constructed identities race gender class and caste can be rethought as matrices designed to accumulate various kinds of socio-economic values and to translate and transfer these values from one group to another Essays in the anthology also attempt to compare the mechanisms deployed by various groups to consolidate identificatory investments Drawn mainly for the fields of literary and cultural studies the essays are grouped in four categories Essays collected under Theoretical Approaches scrutinize the relative value of various approaches those collected under Considerations of Race Gender and Sexual Orientation examine the interaction between these three categories in formation of identities those grouped under Comparative Analysis of African American and Dalit Writing provide comparative analyses of the literary productions of these two oppressed groups and finally those under The Persistence of Racialized Perceptions focus on the role of ideologically inflected perception of European colonizers and the persistence of such perception in the categorization and treatment of colonial migrants to the metropolis Postfeminism and Contemporary Hollywood Cinema J. Gwynne, N. Muller, 2013-06-28 By analyzing the negotiation of femininities and masculinities within contemporary Hollywood cinema Postfeminism and Contemporary Hollywood Cinema presents diverse interrogations of popular cinema and illustrates the need for a renewed scholarly focus on contemporary film production From Antz to Titanic Martin Barker, Thomas Austin, 2000-06-20 Everybody analyses films Ordinary viewers chatting on the way home afterwards Reviewers telling us just enough to tempt or put off Critics situating films for us Moralists hunting for the harmful message So what exactly is it that film academics do that's different Martin Barker and Thomas Austin provide a jargon free accessible and student friendly introduction to film analysis They begin with a discussion about audience and a detailed case study on four conflicting analyses of Capra's It's A Wonderful Life The authors examine a range of popular Hollywood films in a variety of genres including Titanic Deep Impact Sleepless in Seattle The Lion King Starship Troopers and The Usual Suspects and provide vivid demonstrations of what can and can't be achieved with close textual analysis The book ends by proposing a list of measures for assessing the adequacy of film analyses measures intended to lay the basis of a way of doing film analysis which goes beyond theoretically predetermined and often obscurantist assertions Explicitly rejecting much of the theoretical baggage that dogs contemporary film analysis Barker and Austin strip the subject down to its bare essentials The result is a provocative and timely re-examination of many of the basic tenets in film theory and analysis I'll Have What She's Having Erin Carlson, 2017-08-29 A backstage look at the making of Nora Ephron's revered trilogy When Harry Met Sally You've Got Mail and Sleepless in Seattle which brought romantic comedies back to the fore and an intimate portrait of the beloved writer-director who inspired a generation of Hollywood women from Mindy Kaling to Lena Dunham In I'll Have What She's Having entertainment journalist Erin Carlson tells the story of the real Nora Ephron and how she reinvented the romcom through her trio of instant classics With a cast of famous faces including Rob Reiner Tom Hanks Meg Ryan and Billy Crystal Carlson takes readers on a rollicking revelatory trip to Ephron's New York City where reality took a backseat to romance and Ephron who always knew what she wanted and how she wanted it ruled the set with an attention to detail that made her actors feel safe but sometimes exasperated crew members Along the way Carlson examines how Ephron explored in the cinema answers to the questions that plagued her own romantic life and how she regained faith in love after one broken engagement and two failed marriages Carlson also explores countless other questions Ephron's fans have wondered about What sparked Reiner to snap out of his bachelor blues during the making of When Harry Met Sally Why was Ryan a gifted comedian trapped in the body of a fairytale princess not the first choice for the role After she and Hanks each separately balked at playing Mail's Kathleen Kelly and Sleepless's Sam Baldwin what changed their minds And perhaps most importantly What was Dave Chappelle doing in a turtleneck An intimate portrait of one of America's most iconic filmmakers and a look behind the scenes of her crowning achievements I'll Have What She's Having is a vivid account of the days and nights when Ephron along with assorted cynical collaborators learned to show her heart on the screen The Star System Paul McDonald, 2001-06-13 Looks at the development and changing organization of the star system in the American film industry Tracing the popularity of star performers from the early cinema of attractions to the Internet universe Paul McDonald explores the ways in which Hollywood has made and sold its stars Through focusing on particular historical periods case studies of Mary Pickford Bette Davis James Cagney Julia Roberts Tom Cruise and Will Smith illustrate the key conditions influencing the star system in silent cinema the studio era and the New Hollywood

Contemporary American Independent Film Chris Holmlund, Justin Wyatt, 2005 From Easy Rider to The Blair Witch Project this book is a comprehensive examination of the independent film scene Exploring the uneasy relationship between independent films and the major studios the contributors trace the changing ideas and definitions of independent cinema and the diversity of independent film practices They consider the ways in which indie films are marketed and distributed and how new technologies such as video cable and the internet offered new opportunities for filmmakers to produce and market independent films Turning to the work of key auteurs such as John Sayles and Haile Gerima contributors ask whether independent filmmakers can also be stars and consider how indie features like Boys Don't Cry and Shopping for Fangs address issues of gender sexuality and ethnicity normally avoided by Hollywood For all students of film studies and American studies this cultural journey through independent film history will be an absolute must read

The Aesthetic Pleasures of Girl Teen Film Samantha Colling, 2017-07-27 What is fun about the Hollywood version of girlhood Through re-evaluating notions of pleasure and fun The Aesthetic Pleasures of Girl Teen Film forms a study of Hollywood girl-teen films between 2000-2010 By tracing the aesthetic connections between films such as Mean Girls (2004) Hairspray (2007) and Easy A (2010) the book articulates the specific types of pleasure these films offer as a means to understand how Hollywood creates gendered ideas of fun Rather than condemn these films as guilty pleasures this book sets out to understand how they are designed to create experiences that feel as though they express desires memories or fantasies that girls supposedly share in common Providing a practical model for a new approach to cinematic pleasures The Aesthetic Pleasures of Girl Teen Film proposes that these films offer a limited version of girlhood that feels like potential and promise but is restricted within prescribed parameters Lost in Translation Geoff King, 2010-03-31 Elusive subtle and atmospheric Lost in Translation was one of the indie hits of 2004 earning widespread critical praise awards and success at the box office But what was the basis of its appeal and how exactly is the film marked as a distinctly independent work This book by a leading authority on contemporary American indie cinema provides an in depth analysis of the balance of more and less mainstream qualities offered by the film at all levels from industrial factors such as funding marketing and release strategy to formal qualities such as its low key narrative structure and the impressionistic use of imagery and music Other issues examined in detail include the role of stardom particularly the role of Bill Murray the distinctive auteur contribution made by writer director Sofia Coppola and the film s ambiguous relationship with the romantic comedy genre Textual and industrial analysis is also supplemented by consideration of online responses to the film that offer insights into the various ways in which it was either appreciated or rejected by viewers Key Features A unique attempt to pin down the precise nature of the film and its appeal to viewers A major contribution to our understanding of the contemporary American indie film landscape Written by a leading authority on American indie film
