people persists in many lands and religious institutions have been co-opted to own land to gather people to define proper behavior to mete out salvation and to be silent. The contributors to People and Land writing from under the shadows of various empires from and in between Africa, Asia, the Americas, the Caribbean, and Oceania refuse to be silent. They give voice to multiple causes to assess and transform the usual business of theology and hermeneutics to expose and challenge the logics and delusions of coloniality to tally and demand restitution of stolen commodified and capitalized lands to account for the capitalizing, touristic, and forced movements of people and to scripturalize the undeniable ecological crises and our responsibilities to the whole life system watershed. This book is a protest against the claims of political and religious empires over land, people, earth, minds, and the future.

Geography and Enlightenment David N. Livingstone, Charles W. J. Withers, 1999-12-15 Geography and Enlightenment explores both the Enlightenment as a geographical phenomenon and the place of geography in the Enlightenment. From wide-ranging disciplinary and topical perspectives, contributors consider the many ways in which the world of the long eighteenth century was brought to view and shaped through map and text, exploration and argument within and across spatial and intellectual borders. The first set of chapters charts the intellectual and geographical contexts in which Enlightenment ideas began to form including both the sites in which knowledge was created and discussed and the different means used to investigate the globe Detailed explorations of maps created during this period show how these new ways of representing the world and its peoples influenced conceptions of the nature and progress of human societies while studies of the travels of people and ideas reveal the influence of far flung places on Enlightenment science and scientific credibility The final set of chapters emphasizes the role of particular local contexts in Enlightenment thought Contributors are Michael T Bravo Paul Carter Denis Cosgrove Stephen Daniels Matthew Edney Anne Marie Claire Godlewska Peter Gould Michael Heffernan David N Livingstone Dorinda Outram Chris Philo Roy Porter Nicolaas Rupke Susanne Seymour Charles Watkins and Charles W J Withers The Voyage of Bran, Son of Febal, to the Land of the Living ,1897 Grass Creek/Cody Wilderness United States.
