Terras Do Sem Fin:

Terras do sem fim Jorge Amado, 1952 Terras Do Sem Fim. Romance. 16.a Edição Brasileira.) [With Plates and a Portrait.] Jorge Amado, 1966 Jorge Amado's Terras Do Sem Fim and the Northeast Question of Southern Bahia John Sidney Friend, 1990 Jorge Amado Earl Fitz, Keith Brower, Enrique Martinez-Vidal, 2013-10-28 Jorge Amado is simultaneously one of Brazil's most prolific and widely read novelists and one of its most controversial. Seeking to offer for his English speaking audience the same range of critical thinking that surrounds his work in Brazil, this volume provides an introduction and chronology to Amado's life followed by a comprehensive survey of his major works by some of the world's leading Latin American Studies scholars. As the case of Jorge Amado is central to the emergence of Brazilian literature in the twentieth century, this volume of original essays will place him in clearer critical perspective for English language readers.

Terras do sem fim Jorge Amado, 1961 The Violent Land Jorge Amado, 2013-06-25 From the great Brazilian author an exotic tale of greed, madness, and a dispute between two powerful families over land on the cocoa-rich coast of Bahia. A Penguin Classic. The siren song of the lush cocoa-growing forests of Bahia lures them all: the adventurers, the assassins, the gamblers, the brave and beautiful women. It is not a gentle song but a song of greed, madness, and blood. It is a song that promises riches untold or death for the price of a swig of rum, a song most cannot resist until it is too late. Not Margot, the golden-blond prostitute who comes for love; not Cabral, the unscrupulous lawyer who works for one of the cacao colonels; and not Juca, whose ruthless quest to reap the jungle's harvest plants the seeds of his own destruction. For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English-speaking world. With more than 1,700 titles, Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines. Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors, as well as up-to-date translations by award-winning translators.

Brazilian Literature as World Literature Eduardo F. Coutinho, 2018-02-22 Brazilian Literature as World Literature is not only an introduction to Brazilian literature but also a study of the connections between Brazil's literary production and that of the rest of the world, particularly European and North American literatures. It highlights the tension that has always existed in Brazilian literature between the imitation of European models and forms and a yearning for a tradition of its own, as well as the attempts by modernist writers to propose possible solutions such as aesthetic cannibalism to overcome this tension.

Televising Transnational Trauma Myriam Mompot, 2025-05-23 Televising Transnational Trauma offers a critical analysis of global media representations of the traumatic history of slavery in the Americas. Reflecting on the profound influence of the American miniseries Roots and the Brazilian telenovela A Escrava Isaura on their respective genres the book traces the evolution of serialized slave narratives on screen. These productions are explored through the lens of communal memory shaped by culturally bound understandings of shared histories across both homogenous and disparate groups. Taking a transnational approach the book examines how these televisual series delicately balance respect for cultural sensibilities with the demands of historical accuracy archival material and global engagement. By considering a wide range of series from the Anglophone Hispanophone Lusophone and Francophone worlds Myriam Mompot highlights how these works circulate as cultural commodities in both domestic and export markets In doing so she explores how they reinscribe the legacies of slavery within the constraints of contemporary media Engaging with memory studies media studies trauma theory and spectrality Televising Transnational Trauma brings a fresh perspective to comparative African diaspora scholarship It critically examines how these televisual productions reflect and reimagine cultural memories of chattel slavery for audiences worldwide
