Things Happen in Good Bikinis Helen Bailey,2015-10-08 Writer Helen Bailey s world fell apart in early 2011 when she and her workaholic husband took off on a well earned break to Barbados and days after arriving Helen watched helplessly from the beach as he was dragged out to sea in a rip current and drowned Alone and more than three thousand miles from home she was a wife at breakfast and a widow by lunchtime With her life as she knew it shattered Helen began to chronicle living after such devastating and shocking loss in a blog Planet Grief and gained a worldwide following from many who had experienced huge loss whether through death or divorce And now her blog has become a book Anecdotal witty heartbreaking and utterly grounded When Bad Things Happen to Good Bikinis covers all the obvious struggles in the aftermath of a loss as well as many not so obvious but just as poignant everyday obstacles Helen has emerged from her nightmare and her story will bring wry humour comfort and hope to a huge number of people whatever their circumstances Even the Terrible

Things Seem Beautiful to Me Now Mary Schmich,2019-11-05 The best columns by the Pulitzer Prize winning Chicago Tribune writer on diverse topics like family loss mental health advice and the Windy City Over the last two decades Mary Schmich s biweekly column in the Chicago Tribune has offered advice humor and discerning commentary on a broad array of topics including family milestones mental illness writing and life in Chicago Schmich won the 2012 Pulitzer for Commentary for her wide range of down to earth columns that reflect the character and capture the culture of her famed city This second edition updated to include Schmich s best pieces since its original publication collects her ten Pulitzer winning columns along with more than 150 others creating a compelling collection that reflects Schmich's thoughtful and insightful sensibility. The book is divided into thirteen sections with topics focused on loss and survival, relationships, Chicago travel, holidays, reading and writing, and more. Schmich's 1997 "Wear Sunscreen" column, which has had a life of its own as a falsely attributed Kurt Vonnegut commencement speech, is included as well as her columns focusing on the demolition of Chicago's infamous Cabrini Green housing project. One of the most moving sections is her twelve-part series with U.S. District Judge Joan Lefkowitz, as the latter reflected on rebuilding her life after the horrific murders of her mother and husband. Schmich's columns are both universal and deeply personal. The first section of this book is dedicated to columns about her mother and her stories of coping with her mother's aging and eventual death. Throughout the book, Schmich reflects wisely and wryly on the world we live in, and her fond observances of Chicago life bring the city in all its varied character to warm, vivid life.
