Presenting world literature not as a canon of texts but as a mode of circulation and of reading Damrosch argues that world literature is work that gains in translation When it is effectively presented a work of world literature moves into an elliptical space created between the source and receiving cultures shaped by both but circumscribed by neither alone Established classics and new discoveries alike participate in this mode of circulation but they can be seriously mishandled in the process From the rediscovered Epic of Gilgamesh in the nineteenth century to Rigoberta Mench s writing today foreign works have often been distorted by the immediate needs of their own editors and translators Eloquently written argued largely by example and replete with insightful close readings this book is both an essay in definition and a series of cautionary tales

Laurence, Sarah Bird Wright, 1994 Teaching Literature T. Agathocleous, A. Dean, 2002-12-16 In Teaching Literature scholars explain how they think about their everyday experience in the classroom using the tools of their ongoing scholarly projects and engaging with current debates in literary studies Until recently teaching has played second fiddle to literary research as a mode of knowledge in academia leaving new teachers with nowhere to turn for advice about teaching and no forum for discussion of the difficulties and opportunities they face in the classroom Filipinas Everywhere E. San Juan Jr., 2017-02-23 In this epoch of disastrous neoliberal globalisation E San Juan s critique seizes the crisis in neo colonial Philippines as a point of intervention As current Philippine President Duterte s timely war on drugs and corruption rages San Juan foregrounds the facticity that Filipinos are once more confronted with the barbaric legacy of U S domination legitimised today as civilising humanitarianism This wide ranging discourse by a Filipino radical scholar interrogates the apologetic use of postcolonial dogmas Saussurean semiology versus Peircean semiotics Kafka s allegory on torture Edward Said s use of Gramsci and the post conceptual view of photography The author also diagnoses the symptoms of nihilistic neoliberal ideology found in media discourses on diaspora terrorism and globalisation His critique of academic postcolonial studies sums up the arguments elaborated in his previous books Beyond Postcolonial Theory St Martins Press After Post Colonialism Rowman Littlefield and especially US Imperialism and Revolution in the Philippines Palgrave Macmillan Overall San Juan seeks to deploy a historical materialist perspective in elucidating the dialectical interplay of contradictory forces symbolised in art and diverse cultural texts In the process he delineates the contexts of events and encounters generating revolutionary transformations in this transitional Asian Pacific islands that with its subjugation in the Filipino American War of 1899 1913 marked the fateful advent of U S imperial hegemony on the planet Traditional Chinese Fiction in the

The Promise and Premise of Creativity Eugene Eoyang, 2012-07-12 The Promise and Premise of Creativity considers literature in the larger context of globalization and the clash of cultures Refuting the view that the study of literature is useless Eoyang argues that it expands three distinct intellectual skills creative imagination vicarious sympathy and capacious intuition With the advent of the personal computer and the blurring of cultural and economic boundaries it is the ability to imagine to intuit and to invent that will mark the educated student and allow her to survive the rapid pace of change As never before the ability to empathize with other peoples to understand cultures very different from one's own is vital to success in a globalized world In this the very uselessness of literature may inure the mind to think creatively Engaging with both the theory and practice of literature its past and its potential future Eoyang claims that our sense of the world at large of the salient similarities and differences between cultures would be critically diminished without comparative literature circle of prominent intellectuals active during the interwar period      Homer's Traditional Art John Miles Foley, 2011-12-31 In recent decades the evidence for an oral epic tradition in ancient Greece has grown enormously along with our ever increasing awareness of worldwide oral traditions John Foley here examines the artistic implications that oral tradition holds for the understanding of the Iliad and Odyssey in order to establish a context for their original performance and modern day reception In Homer's Traditional Art Foley addresses three crucially interlocking areas that lead us to a fuller appreciation of the Homeric poems He first explores the reality of Homer as their actual author examining historical and comparative evidence to propose that Homer is a legendary and anthropomorphic figure rather than a real life author He next presents the poetic tradition as a specialized and highly resonant language bristling with idiomatic implication Finally he looks at Homer's overall artistic achievement showing that it is best evaluated via a poetics aimed specifically at works that emerge from oral tradition Along the way Foley offers new perspectives on such topics as characterization and personal interaction in the epics the nature of Penelope's heroism the implications of feasting and lament and the problematic ending of the Odyssey His comparative references to the South Slavic oral epic open up new vistas on Homer's language narrative patterning and identity Homer's Traditional Art represents a disentangling of the interwoven strands of orality textuality and verbal art It shows how we can learn to appreciate how Homer's art succeeds not in spite of the oral tradition in which it was composed but rather through its unique agency      Shapeshifter Alice Paalen Rahon, 2021-09-14 Poetry by one of the most powerful female figures in twentieth century surrealism now collected in English for the very first time Alice Paalen Rahon was a shapeshifter a surrealist poet turned painter who was born French and died a naturalized citizen of Mexico Her first husband was the artist Wolfgang Paalen among her lovers were Pablo Picasso and the poet Valentine Penrose and over the years her circle of friends included Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera Joan Mir Paul luard Man Ray and Ana's Nin This bilingual edition of Rahon's poems confirms the achievement of this little known but visionary writer who defies categorization Her spellbinding poems inspired by prehistoric art lost love and travels around the globe weave together dream fantasy and madness For the first time in any language this book gathers the three collections of poetry Rahon published in her lifetime along with uncollected and unpublished poems and an album of portraits manuscript pages and artworks This bilingual edition includes the original French versions of each poem
