The Healing Circle Essays In Crosscultural Mission:

The Healing Circle Stephen Bevans, Eleanor Doidge, Robert J. Schreiter, 2000-10 Indigenous Perspectives of North America Judit Nagy, Enikő Seps, Miklós Vassányi, 2014-08-20 The present volume brings to North American Native Studies with its rich tradition and accumulated expertise in the Central European region the new complexities and challenges of contemporary Native reality The umbrella theme Indigenous perspectives brings together researchers from a great variety of disciplines focusing on issues such as democracy and human rights international law multiculturalism peace and security economic and scientific development sustainability literature and arts and culture as well as religion The thirty five topical and thought provoking articles written in English French and Spanish offer a solid platform for further critical investigations and a useful tool for classroom discussions in a wide variety of academic fields

Prophetic Dialogue: Reflections on Christian Mission Today Stephen B. Bevans and Roger P. Schroeder, 2011 In this volume Fathers Bevans and Schroeder address a primary challenge faced by Christians missionaries today How can they bring the Christian tradition to interact respectfully and effectively with members of other cultures and traditions from around the globe and still be prophetic Publisher website A Struggle for Holy Ground C. Michael Weldon, 2004 A Struggle for Holy Ground results from thirty five interviews with participants in the 1989 consolidations of then parishes in Chicago s Englewood and two parishes from the San Francisco consolidations after its 1989 earthquake It explores the roles of ritual and pastoral care in this sometimes highly conflicted situation through the lens of trauma and reconciliation It proposes a series of new rites group reconciliation atonement lament leave taking memorial and inauguration based on the experience of people most impacted by parish restructurings

The Church and Indigenous Peoples in the Americas Michel Andraos, 2019-01-25 Indigenous and non Indigenous voices come together in this volume to discuss both the wounds of colonial history and the opportunities for decolonization reconciliation and hope in the relationship between the church and Indigenous peoples across the Americas Scholars and pastoral leaders from Chile Bolivia Brazil Mexico the United States and Canada and Indigenous peoples of Mapuche Chiquitano Tzeltal Maya Oglala Sioux Mi kmaq and Anishinaabe Ojibwe reflect on the possibility of constructing decolonial theology and pastoral praxis and on the urgent need for transformation of church structures and old theology The book opens new horizons for different ways of thinking and acting and for the emergence of a truly intercultural theology

Mission and Development Matthew Clarke, 2012-01-26 This book considers the implications consequences opportunities and constraints faced when mission and development endeavours coincide This is explored from various perspectives including that of history theology and those involved in mission work and missionary organizations Despite eighty per cent of the world s population professing religious belief religion has been largely excluded from consideration of those seeking to achieve development in poorer countries Moreover the work of missionaries has often involved the provision of basic welfare services that in many parts of the world predate the interventions undertaken by professional secular aid workers Are missionaries doing development work or is development a critical aspect of mission Women and Christian Mission Frances Adeney,2015-11-04 What are Christian women thinking about mission How do they do mission What informs their knowledge and action as they address issues in a complex world where religious proselytizing has become suspect This empirical study explores those questions finding congruence among women from diverse backgrounds and cultural contexts Women in mission face common identity issues utilize art and beauty in their work and develop character as they overcome obstacles in their cultural and denominational settings Through nearly one hundred interviews of women in Europe Asia Brazil and the United States a study of women s theologies of mission lectures and countless conversations with women around the globe this study finds common themes among contemporary women doing Christian mission This book fills a lacuna in mission studies that professors pastors and church women and men will find informative and refreshing

Berlin Fellowship Jane Holslag,2013 Between 1961 and 1989 in East Germany the Cold War border was crossed through the Berlin Fellowship an ecumenical visitation program Under the watchful eye of East Germany s security police the Stasi East German Christians welcomed guests from the US into their congregations and homes for an hour an evening or a weekend of discussion shared meals and worship The voice of the other through Eastern recollections and perspectives on this unique form of koinonia reveal how fellowship can be missional and transformative This book examines the intercultural history of the Berlin Fellowship during the Cold War Series ContactZone Explorations in Intercultural Theology Vol 14

Reweaving the Ministries Gilbert Ost diek, OFM,2021-06-15 As the Emmaus story unfolds it moves from catechesis to Eucharist to mission It is a promising paradigm for the process of reweaving the present array of parish ministries into an integrated pastoral practice Gilbert Ost diek OFM invites those engaged in ministry and those preparing for it to think of their own ministry as part of a larger pastoral tapestry He also extends the Emmaus paradigm to pastoral leaders who have the responsibility to integrate and coordinate the practice of ministry at parish and diocesan levels Reweaving the Ministries invites all who are involved in ministry to become ever more fully in St Paul s description co workers with one another and co workers with God in the care of God s people Surprised by God Christina R. Zaker,2020-12-11 Our God is a God of surprises Am I open to the God of surprises Pope Francis 2014 Responding to this challenge Surprised by God explores what it means to reflect on life and our journey of faith Theological reflection has been primarily used in academic training for ministry preparation but it is an essential tool for any person pondering Pope Francis questions Christina Zaker provides an in depth look at the foundational elements of theological reflection including definitions and guidance through various methods Offering a lens for reflection based on the unique way Jesus parables surprise and invite listeners to collaborate in the reign of God the book foregrounds the importance of reflection as a spiritual practice committed to justice Reveling in the many ways God surprises us we learn how to respond to the invitation of faith with open minds and hearts Creativity and Captivity Uday Balasundaram,2021-12-02 Ultimately what really does it mean to be creative How can we see ourselves as participating in the creativity of God for mission All people are creative Sadly however for many creativity is stifled and remains stunted due to several reasons social economic political cultural and even spiritual This study explores how ICMs indigenous cosmopolitan musicians negotiate their creativity amid the liminal spaces they occupy as they share in the creativity of God for mission through their music But what exactly does it mean to share in the creativity of God for mission Contrary to popular notion ICMs evidence that creativity is not merely innovation it is not a psychological metric for measuring human potential it is certainly not the icing on the cake reserved for a few so called creatives or artists Rather theological creativity is participation in the creatio Dei it is theologically prior to mission As a missiological framework creatio Dei is understood here in terms of creative being creative construction design and creative performance Hopefully this book can help clarify and expand our understanding of what it means to be truly creative and thereby with the help of the Creator put into practice principles of theological creativity as we share in the creativity of God in the world with others

A Shamanic Pneumatology in a Mystical Age of Sacred Sustainability Jojo M. Fung, 2017-07-17 This book represents a germinal effort that urges all religious and world leaders to savor the mystical spirituality especially the cosmology and spirituality of sacred sustainability of the indigenous peoples The power of indigenous spirit world is harnessed for the common good of the indigenous communities and the regenerative power of mother earth This everyday mysticism of the world as spirited and sacred serves to re enchant a world disillusioned by the unsustainability of destructive economic systems that have spawned the current ecological crises Author Jojo Fung offers insight from his lived experience and this book represents his effort to correlate the indigenous spirit world with Catholic Pneumatology and articulate the activity of God s Spirit as the Spirit of Sacred Sustainability

Engaging Our Diversity Cimperman, RSCJ, Maria, Schroeder, SVD, Roger P., 2020-05-20 Leading practitioners theologians and psychologists from across the globe engage the essential topic of intercultural life today They explore key areas needed for communities of consecrated life to engage the gift of diversity in their community life and ministries emphasizing the necessary motivation spirituality and ongoing process of conversion from all forms of ethnocentrism and racism

Models of Contextual Theology Stephen B. Bevans, 2002 Stephen B Bevans s Models of Contextual Theology has become a staple in courses on theological method and as a handbook used by missionaries and other Christians concerned with the Christian tradition s understanding of itself in relation to culture First published in 1992 and now in its seventh printing in English with translations underway into Spanish Korean and Indonesian Bevans s book is a judicious examination of what the terms contextual theology and to contextualize mean In the revised and expanded edition Bevans adds a counter cultural model to the five presented in the first edition the translation the anthropological the praxis the synthetic and the transcendental model This means that readers will be introduced to the way in which figures such as Stanley Hauerwas John Milbank Lesslie Newbigin and occasionally Pope John Paul II need to be taken into account The author s revisions also incorporate suggestions made by reviewers to enhance the clarity of the original three chapters on the nature of contextual theology and the five models Church for Every Context Michael Moynagh, 2014-04-15 The first comprehensive textbook on the theology and methodology of Fresh Expressions one of the most important developments within the contemporary church Through Our Long Exile Kenneth Leech, 2001 A provocative and powerful analysis of the way ahead for the churches in Britain today Constants in Context Stephen B. Bevens, Roger P. Schroeder, Roger Schroeder, 2004-01-01 Mission is handicapped without a sound biblical theology of mission and an understanding of the history of mission leading up to our current context Constants in Context offers both of these elements It is mission theology in historical perspective and or a history of mission that is grounded theologically The authors describe it as a systematic theology with mission at its core and a church history shaped by the constant but always contextual Christian traditions Furthermore it is a constructive contribution to how mission theology needs to be practical and lived out through today's church and in our world Written collaboratively by Roman Catholic writers Stephen Bevens and Roger Schroeder both Missionaries of the Divine Word SVDs It is a particularly insightful in regard to the history and the various streams of Catholic mission but it also addresses and learns from the other traditions of the church In fact one of the book's strengths is its attention to neglected aspects and hidden stories of church and mission history As a result it is gratifying to be inspired by non European mission women in mission and various forgotten or often ignored branches of the church The book is in three sections first there is a framework for cultural contexts and theological constants second an in depth exploration of historical stages and different models for mission and third a presentation of theological frameworks for mission The third section concludes with a case for mission as prophetic dialogue being the most appropriate model for 21st century mission Amazon.com What Is the Mission of the Church? Schroeder, Roger P., 2018 The Spirit in the Church and the World Bradford E. Hinze, 2004 Interculturalidad Lazar T. Stanislaus, Martin Ueffing, 2017-02-20 Obra colectiva que ofrece una mirada caleidoscópica a los desafíos y oportunidades de la interculturalidad en la misión La obra está dividida en dos partes Vivir interculturalmente y Misión intercultural En la primera se aborda principalmente la vida de los misioneros que viven en comunidades formadas por miembros de varias culturas y naciones se explican la riqueza de esta convivencia y el enriquecimiento de vivir interculturalmente se articulan los desafíos que implica vivir en este tipo de comunidad y se estudian los posibles modos para afrontarlos En la segunda parte se analizan los desafíos para la misión en el cambiante escenario de la interacción entre culturas diferentes especialmente en el contexto de la globalización el fundamentalismo la posmodernidad y la pobreza
