compellingly that the preparation of students for standardized tests engenders teaching methods that vastly compromise the quality of education Handbook of Research on Student Engagement Sandra L. Christenson, Amy L. Reschly, Cathy Wylie, 2012-02-23 For more than two decades the concept of student engagement has grown from simple attention in class to a construct comprised of cognitive emotional and behavioral components that embody and further develop motivation for learning Similarly the goals of student engagement have evolved from dropout prevention to improved outcomes for lifelong learning This robust expansion has led to numerous lines of research across disciplines and are brought together clearly and comprehensively in the Handbook of Research on Student Engagement The Handbook guides readers through the field's rich history sorts out its component constructs and identifies knowledge gaps to be filled by future research Grounding data in real world learning situations contributors analyze indicators and facilitators of student engagement link engagement to motivation and gauge the impact of family peers and teachers on engagement in elementary and secondary grades Findings on the effectiveness of classroom interventions are discussed in detail And because assessing engagement is still a relatively new endeavor chapters on measurement methods and issues round out this important resource Topical areas addressed in the Handbook include Engagement across developmental stages Self efficacy in the engaged learner Parental and social influences on engagement and achievement motivation The engaging nature of teaching for competency development The relationship between engagement and high risk behavior in adolescents Comparing methods for measuring student engagement An essential guide to the expanding knowledge base the Handbook of Research on Student Engagement serves as a valuable resource for researchers scientist practitioners and graduate students in such varied fields as clinical child and school psychology educational psychology public health teaching and teacher education social work and educational policy
