The Logic of Faith Antonio L. McDaniel, 2011-08-24 Behold I give you faith Now you have the ability to move and live and breathe in confidence that everything you touch will work all that you think about will become a positive influence and change lives you will even become wealthy in the process It would be absolutely wonderful for God to make that pronouncement to us and it becomes so Fortunately and to what may be the ultimate paradox the kind of faith we seek will only come by trials perseverance and yes it is a journey that we all must take Faith increases as it is used and grows exponentially when it is tested The true depth of these tests of faith does not come because you decide to seek or pursue God more these tests come because faith is alive and demands to be fed even challenged Admittedly faith does appear to be somewhat illogical but most goals or feats of greatness are often met with resistance in the end when the goal has been met the feat obtained and the journey completed it is only then in clear hindsight that you realize that this was a test of your faith subsequently as you reflect on your travels you think about all the things that you would have changed or done differently only to later realize that if things were different you may not be who you are The Logic of Faith is a reasonable a step along the path of your journey through personal experiences some good some not so good I share my experiences and trials of faith so you can be enlightened and encouraged as you continue on your journey of understanding Once you embrace and unite with your faith the world will truly become your oyster and it will not matter where you are or what you are facing My wife Phyllis and our two sons Ryan and Corban are enjoying our journey of faith together a journey that currently has us residing in Katy Texas and a faith that will allow us to continue to move and live and have our being in Him Cancer, Faith, and Unexpected Joy Becky

Baudouin, Ellen Schuknecht, 2017-09-26 A memoir equipping readers to face death from a Christian perspective I've taught you how to live now I want to teach you how to die You don't have to be afraid When Becky Baudouin's mother spoke those words to her they weren't said lightly Her mother had just been told she had an inoperable tumor and there was no hope for a longer life There was however assurance of everlasting life to come In Cancer Faith and Unexpected Joy Baudouin shares her insights on fear loss and grief These honest insights are applicable to everyone's story not just her own and extend real comfort to every reader Questions for personal reflection or group discussion help both those who are losing a loved one and those who are facing death and her story reveals that God is the only source for a spirit's true healing For anyone living with the tension of wanting to hold on yet needing to let go Cancer Faith and Unexpected Joy demonstrates a powerful and profound love Because of Annie Bob Harrison, 2013-11-27 Bob Harrison was an ordinary guy who served twenty four years in the US Air Force with his wife Annie by his side When Bob retired from the armed forces he and Annie decided to settle down and try to find the American dream in Wichita Kansas Things went well for a few years and their two small antique businesses thrived Then on a warm summer day a stranger came out of nowhere knocked on their door and immediately transformed their lives into a clash of two worlds The stranger's name was blood cancer full of chaos evil and the inhuman versus love compassion hope and faith Through Bob from his eyes as a loving caregiver you'll see the trauma feel the pain hear the laughter and share in the love of two people that fought until the end This is not an ordinary trail on a walk through cancer It's a chronological journey from the beginning to the end with an unlikely twist Bob's hope and dream is that someone will learn from his experience and not have to relive this story After all it's Annie's story Because of Annie
