The Management Implications of New Information Technology Piercy,1996 Strategic Information Management Robert D. Galliers,Dorothy E. Leidner,2014-06-11 Today there are few organizations that can afford to ignore information technology and few individuals who would prefer to be without it As managerial tasks become more complex so the nature of the required information systems changes from structured routine support to ad hoc unstructured complex enquiries at the highest levels of management As with the first three editions this fourth edition of Strategic Information Management Challenges and Strategies in Managing Information Systems presents the many complex and inter related issues associated with the management of information systems This book provides a rich source of material reflecting recent thinking on the key issues facing executives in information systems strategic management It draws from a wide range of contemporary articles written by leading experts from North America Asia and Europe Designed as a course text for MBA Master s level students and senior undergraduate students taking courses in information management it also provides a wealth of information and references for researchers New to this edition are updated readings addressing current issues and the latest thinking in information management Strategic Information Management Robert Galliers,Dorothy E. Leidner,2003 The editors include a wide range of contemporary and classic articles from North America and the UK on key information systems management themes including IT developments in business and outsourcing information systems services Marketing Organisation (RLE Marketing) Nigel Piercy,2014-09-19 Aimed primarily at the MBA student or those preparing for professional qualifications in the marketing field this book analyses the process of decision making in marketing and the role of organisation It examines The study of the organisational location and positioning of the marketing function The analytical perspectives of information processing theories of organisation The relationship between structure and information Organisational processes The Management Implications of New Information Technology ,1983 Marketing Budgeting (RLE Marketing) Nigel Piercy,2014-09-15 This book represents a radical departure from the established theory in taking an organisational view of resource allocation in marketing which stresses the importance of structure and process rather than just budgeting technique The book describes and analyses marketing organisation and processes in terms of organisational power and politics and models market budgets as political outcomes Economic and Social Implications of Automation Einar Hardin,Jon M. Shepard,Morris S. Spier,1966 Challenges of Information Technology Management in the 21st Century Information Resources Management Association. International Conference,2000 As the 21st century begins we are faced with opportunities and challenges of available technology as well as pressured to create strategic and tactical plans for future technology Worldwide IT professionals are sharing and trading concepts and ideas for effective IT management and this co operation is what leads to solid IT management practices This volume is a collection of papers that present IT management perspectives from professionals around the world The papers seek to offer new ideas refine old ones and pose interesting scenarios to help the reader develop company sensitive management strategies The Electronic Design Studio Malcolm McCullough, William John Mitchell, Patrick Purcell, 1990 In four parts this book frames those issues and provides a diversity of perspectives on them Organizational Stress Management A. Weinberg, V. Sutherland, C. Cooper, 2015-12-30 Including practical advice on how to conduct a stress audit and how to target stress hot spots within an organization Organizational Stress Management provides a fresh strategic model for the manager concerned with the negative effects stress can have both on company performance and the quality of life of individuals at work
