Walkling,2019-03-19 English Dramatick Opera 1661 1706 is the first comprehensive examination of the distinctively English form known as dramatick opera which appeared on the

London stage in the mid 1670s and lasted until its displacement by Italian through composed opera in the first decade of the eighteenth century Andrew Walkling argues that while the musical elements of this form are crucial to its definition and history the origins of the genre lie principally in a tradition of spectacular stagecraft that first manifested itself in England in the mid 1660s as part of a hitherto unidentified dramatic sub genre to which Walkling gives the name spectacle tragedy Armed with this new understanding the book explores a number of historical and interpretive issues including the physical and rhetorical configurations of performative spectacle the administrative maneuverings of the two patent theatre companies the construction and deployment of the technologically advanced Dorset Garden Theatre in 1670 71 the critical response to generic technical and ideological developments in Restoration drama and the shifting balance between machine spectacle and song and dance entertainment throughout the later decades of the seventeenth century including in the dramatick operas of Henry Purcell This study combines the materials and methodologies of music history theatre history literary studies and bibliography to fashion an entirely new approach to the history of spectacular and musical drama on the English Restoration stage This book serves as a companion to the Routledge publication Masque and Opera in England 1656 1688 2017

Another Throat Ryan Sharp, 2024-10-29 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively re imagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities Daily Graphic

Yaw Boadu-Ayeboah, 2006-06-23 Costa Rica After Coffee Lowell Gudmundson, 2021-10-20 Costa Rica After Coffee explores the political social and economic place occupied by the coffee industry in contemporary Costa Rican history In this follow up to the 1986 classic Costa Rica Before Coffee Lowell Gudmundson delves deeply into archival sources alongside the individual histories of key coffee growing families to explore the development of the co op movement the rise of the gourmet coffee market and the societal transformations Costa Rica has undergone as a result of the coffee industry s powerful presence in the country While Costa Rican coffee farmers and co ops experienced a golden age in the 1970s and 1980s the emergence and expansion of a gourmet coffee market in the 1990s drastically reduced harvest volumes Meanwhile urbanization and improved education among the Costa Rican population threatened the continuance of family coffee farms because of the lack of both farmland and a successor generation of farmers As the last few decades have seen a rise in tourism and other industries within the country agricultural exports like coffee have ceased to occupy the same crucial space in the Costa Rican economy Gudmundson argues that the fulfillment of promises of reform from the co op era had the paradoxical effect of challenging the endurance of the coffee industry Longfellow Charles C. Calhoun,2005-06-15 In the first biography of Longfellow in almost fifty years Charles C Calhoun seeks to solve a mystery Why has one of America s most famous writers fallen into oblivion His answer to this question takes us through a life story that reads like a Victorian family saga and reveals the man who introduced Americans to the literatures of other countries while creating a gallery of American icons among them Paul Revere John and Priscilla Alden Miles Standish the Village Blacksmith Hiawatha and Evangeline

Midcentury Suspension Claire Seiler,2020-08-11 How did literary artists confront the middle of a century already defined by two global wars and newly faced with a nuclear future Midcentury Suspension argues that a sense of suspension a feeling of being between beginnings and endings recent horrors and opaque horizons shaped transatlantic literary forms and cultural expression in this singular moment Rooted in extensive archival research in literary print and public cultures of the Anglophone North Atlantic Claire Seiler s account of midcentury suspension ranges across key works of the late 1940s and early 1950s by authors such as W H Auden Samuel Beckett Elizabeth Bishop Elizabeth Bowen Ralph Ellison and Frank O Hara Seiler reveals how these writers cultivated modes of suspension that spoke to the felt texture of life at midcentury Running counter to the tendency to frame midcentury literature in the terms of modernism or of our contemporary Midcentury Suspension reorients twentieth century literary study around the epoch's fraught middle
