The Liberation Of The Person:

The Free Person and the Free Economy Anthony J. Santelli, 2002-01-01 Foundations of Economic Personalism is a series of three book length monographs each closely examining a significant dimension of the Center for Economic Personalism's unique synthesis of Christian personalism and free economic market theory In the aftermath of the momentous geo political and economic changes of the late 1980s a small group of Christian social ethicists began to converse with free market economists over the morality of market activity This interdisciplinary exchange eventually led to the founding of a new academic subdiscipline under the rubric of economic personalism These scholars attempt to integrate economic theory history and methodology with Christian personalism's stress upon human dignity humane social structures and social justice This final volume in the series systematically applies the praxeological from the first volume and theoretical from the second volume foundations of the personalist tradition to free market economic theory Unlike the previous two this work defends economic liberty in theologically sensitive terms that reference the personalist tradition without compromising the disciplinary integrity of either economics or social ethics

Our New Human Consciousness Terry Sands, 2011-05 Every few thousand years our human culture experiences a massive evolutionary transformation In the next few years our consciousness will change very rapidly and move us beyond anything we can presently imagine This change of consciousness is happening naturally to each of us now and it will affect every aspect of how we think how we live and how we love We are a culture in search of its spirit and this change of consciousness is evolutionarily next for humankind on this planet When the awareness opens one may search many avenues and attractions for truth and enlightenment and find the search lacking in result The next step may be the path of Self discovery But the direction on this path will not be given to us by a great teacher who comes down from the mountaintop with answers cast in stone but rather by lots of little great teachers who could be called pathfinders And to move into this new consciousness we will transform the mind and the way it works with new mental skills and mental technology Our success is inevitable The ease or difficulty with which we achieve this success is still in formation We will survive the transition physically The question is whether we will survive psychologically Psychological survival in this transition depends on only one thing Developing the ability and inner discipline to completely instantaneously unquestioningly and continuously adapt to change

Fully Human in Christ Todd Speidell, 2016-11-08 Thomas F Torrance's theology included a thoroughgoing albeit implicit ethic of reconciliation It focused on the personalizing and humanizing mediation of Christ in all realms of life including not only a supposed private dimension of human life but also the social historical and political structures of human society and even of the cosmos itself This book builds upon that vision of a Christian ethic radically rooted in God's grace which encompasses sustains and transforms the entire human and created order A trinitarian incarnational social ethic does not begin with our human causes projects and agendas however noble they might be but with witness to the reconciling person and work of Jesus Christ for us

People's Journey with God Iv' 2007

Ed. (responding to God's Call for Love,justice & Solidarity) , Augustine on the Will Han-luen Kantzer Komline,2019-11-12 This book provides a framework for Augustine s understanding of will an aspect of his thought that has proven to be both essential and inscrutable On the one hand the Augustinian will is everywhere It comes up constantly both in Augustine s thought and in the massive literature engaging it The will is impossible to avoid in almost any treatment of any aspect of his thinking whether theological philosophical psychological or political because it is at the heart of his understanding of the human person and therefore vital to his understanding of such diverse topics as grace freedom the image of God and moral responsibility On the other hand Augustine s understanding of the will resists direct examination With the exception of an early treatise on free choice Augustine never devoted a work to exploring the will in a programmatic way Likewise while the Augustinian will is constantly invoked in secondary literature it rarely receives analysis in its own right Han luen Kantzer Komline demonstrates that Augustine s view is theologically differentiated comprising four distinct types of human will which correspond to four different theological scenarios Augustine s innovation consists in distinguishing these types with a detail and clarity unprecedented by any thinker before him This account of the Augustinian will gives a comprehensive picture of the development and mature shape of Augustine s thinking on this vital yet perennially puzzling topic

Retrieving the Human Jose Comblin,2003-08-26 All roads in the church lead to humankind Pope John Paul II wrote in his first encyclical But what is it to be a human being And what vision does Christian theology offer for being and becoming human In the past theology has taken the role of the dominant ideology in a society claiming to present a complete vision of humankind and its place in creation Now Comblin argues we need to reestablish the primacy of the biblical message and tradition being lived today The Bible espouses a non idealized non individualized but realistic and communitarian view of what it means to be human This can be called the humanity of the two thirds world those whose humanity does not figure in the ideology of the privileged few As Comblin writes The privileged forget their bodies Those who have never been truly hungry do not understand that a human being is first and foremost a being who needs to eat Today it is the poor who live through their bodies and theology makes an option for the poor A new model of theology is emerging from Christian communities growing up all over the globe And yet it is an old model too that finds and takes much from the communities of the first Christians Retrieving the Human explores this new yet old vision examining questions of the new person and personhood soul and body humankind in relation to space and time the person in relation to science technology and work humanity before God It is among the poor particularly in the base communities that Comblin looks for models of being truly human today

Gabriel Andrew Msoka,2007-04-15 For decades post independence Africa has been marked by conflicts violence and civil wars leading to a displacement of civilian populations and numerous humanitarian crises For example the Somali war the 1994 Rwandan genocide and the Darfur conflict in Western Sudan illustrate this phenomenon In these situations protecting the basic human rights of security subsistence the liberties of social participation and the physical movement of refugees and internally displaced persons IDPs particularly women children and young people has been seen as inadequate This book offers the following a systematic presentation of the nature and scope of the crises an evaluative description of the achievements and failures of governments organizations and the international community in responding to the crises a critical analysis of the rationale for such an inadequate response and a philosophical and theological study of basic human rights that seeks to redress these failures by envisioning an appropriate response and a lasting solution to the conflicts displacement and humanitarian crises in Sub Saharan Africa
