The Major Abolitionist Poems Castro Alves, 1990 Decolonisations of Literature Stefan Helgesson, 2022-04-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This book sets out to understand how the meaning of literature was transformed in the Global South in the post 1945 era It looks at institutional contexts in South Africa mainly Johannesburg Brazil S o Paulo Senegal Dakar and Kenya Nairobi and engages with critical writing in English Portuguese and French Critics studied in the book include Antonio Candido Tim Couzens Isabel Hofmeyr Es kia Mphahlele L opold Senghor Taban Lo Liyong and Ngugi wa Thiong o By reading these intellectuals of the Global South as producers of theory and practice in their own right the book attempts to demonstrate the contingency of what is her called the worlding of the concept of literature Decolonisation itself is seen as a contingent non linear process that unfolds in a recursive dialogue with the past In a bid to offer a more grounded approach to world literature a key objective of this study is therefore to investigate the accumulation of temporalities in institutional histories of critical practice To reach this objective it engages the method of conceptual history as developed by Reinhart Koselleck and David Scott demonstrating how the concept of literature is resemanticised in ways that dialectically both challenge and consolidate literature as a concept and practice in post colonised societies Literature and the World Stefan Helgesson, Mads

Rosendahl Thomsen, 2019-09-09 Literature and the World presents a broad and multifaceted introduction to world literature and globalization The book provides a brief background and history of the field followed by a wide spectrum of exemplary readings and case studies from around the world Amongst other aspects of World Literature the authors look at New approaches to digital humanities and world literature Ecologies of world literature Rethinking geography in a globalized world Translation Race and political economy Offering state of the art debates on world literature this volume is a superb introduction to the field Its critically thoughtful approach makes this the ideal guide for anyone approaching World Literature

The Black Butterfly Marcus Wood, 2019 The Black Butterfly focuses on the slavery writings of three of Brazil s literary giants Machado de Assis Castro Alves and Euclides da Cunha These authors wrote in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries as Brazil moved into and then through the 1888 abolition of slavery Assis was Brazil s most experimental novelist Alves was a Romantic poet with passionate liberationist politics popularly known as the poet of the slaves and da Cunha is known for the masterpiece Os Sert es The Backlands a work of genius that remains strangely neglected in the scholarship of transatlantic slavery Wood finds that all three writers responded to the memory of slavery in ways that departed from their counterparts in Europe and North America where emancipation has typically been depicted as a moment of closure He ends by setting up a wider literary context for his core authors by introducing a comparative study of their great literary abolitionist predecessors Lu s Gonzaga Pinto da Gama and Joaquim Nabuco The Black Butterfly is a revolutionary text that insists Brazilian culture has always refused a clean break between slavery and its aftermath Brazilian slavery thus emerges as a living legacy subject to continual renegotiation and reinvention A World Divided Eric D. Weitz, 2019-09-24 A global history of human rights in a world of nation states that grant rights to some while denying them to others Once dominated by vast empires the world is now divided into close to 200 independent countries with laws and constitutions proclaiming human rights a transformation that suggests that nations and human rights inevitably developed together But the reality is far more problematic as Eric Weitz shows in this compelling global history of the fate of human rights in a world of nation states Through vivid histories drawn from virtually every continent A World Divided describes how since the eighteenth century nationalists have struggled to establish their own states that grant human rights to some people At the same time they have excluded others through forced assimilation ethnic cleansing or even genocide From Greek rebels American settlers and Brazilian abolitionists in the nineteenth century to anticolonial Africans and Zionists in the twentieth nationalists have confronted a crucial question Who has the right to have rights A World Divided tells these stories in colorful accounts focusing on people who were at the center of events And it shows that rights are dynamic Proclaimed originally for propertied white men rights were quickly demanded by others including women American Indians and black slaves A World Divided also explains the origins of many of today's crises from the existence of more than 65 million refugees and migrants worldwide to the growth of right wing nationalism The book argues that only the continual advance of international human rights will move us beyond the quandary of a world divided between those who have rights and those who don't
