The Making Of The American Citizenry An Introduction To Political Socialization:

The Making of the American Citizenry: an Introduction to Political Socialization Michael P. Riccards, 1973

Johannes Bjelke-Petersen Rae Wear, 2002 A saviour to some reviled by others Johannes Bjelke Petersen became the butt of jokes and even assassination attempts His influence spread well beyond Queensland and in the mid 1970s he put an unknown french polisher into the Senate to help rub out the Whitlam government Young Joh had been a loner who worked hard to overcome crippling childhood polio and the poverty of life on his family s farm Enduring a long apprenticeship as an opposition backbencher he finally made it to the top bringing to his old style autocratic rule a more media savvy appeal to the electorate As this long awaited biography reveals Joh was as cunning as he was ruthless throughout his forty year political career Rae Wear analyses in detail his political psyche his unique leadership style and the reasons for his electoral support taking into account his Danish immigrant background and lifelong Christian piety Essential reading for anyone interested in Australian politics this biographical study explains in depth for the first time Bjelke Petersen s unlikely elevation to the premiership and his ultimate disgrace amid revelations of widespread corruption
