The Man Who Built The Bridge:

Chief Engineer Erica Wagner, 2017-06-27 The first full biography of a crucial figure in the American story Washington Roebling builder of the Brooklyn Bridge I know that nothing can be done perfectly at the first trial I also know that each day brings its little quota of experiences which with honest intentions will lead to perfection after a while Washington Roebling His father conceived of the Brooklyn Bridge but after John Roebling's sudden death Washington Roebling built what has become one of America's most iconic structures as much a part of New York as the Statue of Liberty or the Empire State Building Yet as recognizable as the bridge is its builder is too often forgotten and his life is of interest far beyond his chosen field It is the story of immigrants of the frontier of the greatest crisis in American history and of the making of the modern world Forty years after the publication of The Great Bridge David McCullough's classic chronicle of how the East River was spanned Erica Wagner has written a fascinating biography of one of America's most distinguished engineers a man whose long life was a model of courage in the face of extraordinary adversity Chief Engineer is enriched by Roebling's own eloquent voice unveiled in his recently discovered memoir that was previously thought lost to history The memoir reveals that his father John a renowned engineer who made his life in America after humble beginnings in Germany was a tyrannical presence in Washington's life so his own adoption of that career was hard won A young man when the Civil War broke out Washington joined the Union Army building bridges that carried soldiers across rivers and seeing action in many pivotal battles from Antietam to Gettysburg aspects of his life never before fully brought to light Safely returned he married the remarkable Emily Warren Roebling who would play a crucial role in the construction of the unprecedented Brooklyn Bridge It would be Washington Roebling's grandest achievement but by no means the only one Elegantly written with a compelling narrative sweep Chief Engineer will introduce Washington Roebling and his era to a new generation of readers

Adventures in time and place National Geographic Society (U.S.), McGraw-Hill Companies. McGraw-Hill School Division, 2000 Describes five geography themes each introduces a new concept to help children describe their own adventure as they explore the different parts of My world Wales' 1000 Best Heritage Sites Terry Breverton, 2010-10-15 A uniquely accessible history of Wales through its landscape and built heritage Build a Bridge and Get Over It! Paul Sheppard, Rob Suggs, 2009-06-01 Unity Jesus prayed that his followers would experience it The apostles worked hard to achieve and maintain it Christians today rarely enjoy it God's desire is for our churches marriages families and interpersonal relationships to be characterized by unity and agreement But all too often strife and discord prevail instead why Because we fail to realize that our differences be they doctrinal debates generational clashes or other personal preferences don't have to create division Unity and unison are two entirely different things The key to practicing biblical unity is to build a bridge and get over it Drawing insight from key passages of Scripture as well as years of leading a dynamic and diverse congregation this author explains in very practical ways how we can improve our relationships and deal constructively with our differences and disagreements as followers of Christ Paul Earl Sheppard has been senior pastor of Abundant Life Christian Fellowship in Mountain View California since 1989 Under Paul s visionary leadership this church has become one of the largest and most racially diverse congregations in northern California He serves as speaker for Enduring Truth a popular daily radio program heard on stations and networks around the country A native of Philadelphia Paul has studied at the University of Pennsylvania the Center for Urban Theological Studies and the Southern California School of Ministry He holds a Master s degree in Ministry and a Doctorate of Divinity Paul sits on the board of directors of NRB National Religious Broadcasters and is a highly sought after speaker and conference leader He was married to his wife Meredith in May 1982 They have two adult children Alicia and Aaron
