Roberta Carlile traveled west with the old man and the little girl, and many times she realized she did not care where the destination would take her. The man she loved was gone, and if he was not beside her, what did it matter if she spent her days in a covered wagon facing the blazing afternoon sun huddled down through the drenching showers and suffering the endless days of moving on and on and on? What did it matter if the wagon was taking her into a life that stretched out before her as a bleak unknown? Uppermost in her mind was the protection of the little girl that fate had left with her, the child she had promised to protect.

FROM GUNSHOT TO HOMESTEAD is book one of an eight-book series: DEEP FORK RIVER, OKLAHOMA TERRITORY. This series took place in a unique period of history when new land was deeded on the basis of a gunshot and a footrace. The central nugget of land in the Oklahoma Territory was advertised for settlement; quarter sections were marked out, and on the 22 of April 1889 the local Cavalry and other officials started the race at the shot of a gun. On foot, on horses, in wagons, and in buggies, they struggled for a place to put down roots. Each of these books brings a different family, person, or in one incident, a whole town, to settle in the new land. The small town, fictional town of Prosper, was settled by these immigrants and others. It is generally thought that this incident was the only one of its kind in history.
