No Trespassing Eva Hemmungs Wirtén, 2004-01-01 In this scholarly yet highly accessible work Eva Hemmungs Wirtén traces three main themes within the scope of cultural ownership: authorship as one of the basic features of print culture; the use of intellectual property rights as a privileged instrument of control; and finally globalization as a pre-condition under which both operate. Underwritten by rapid technological change and increased global interdependence, intellectual property rights are designed to protect a production that is no longer industrial but informational. No Trespassing tells the story of a century of profound change in cultural ownership. It begins with late nineteenth-century Europe exploring cultural ownership in a number of settings across both spatial and temporal divides and concludes in today's global knowledge-based society. Wirtén takes an interdisciplinary and international approach using a wide array of material from court cases to novels for her purposes. From Victor Hugo and the 1886 Berne Convention to the translation of Peter Heg's bestseller Smilla's Sense of Snow, Wirtén charts a history of intellectual property rights and regulations. She addresses the relationship between author and translator, looks at the challenges to intellectual property by the arrival of the photocopier, takes into account the media conglomerate's search for content as a key asset since the 1960s and considers how a Western legal framework interacts with attempts to protect traditional knowledge and folklore. No Trespassing is essential reading for all who care about culture and the future regulatory structures of access to it.

Royal Portraits in Hollywood Elizabeth A. Ford, Deborah C. Mitchell, 2009-06-26 Few lives provide as much history or drama as those of monarchs. Filmmakers from the silent era to onward have displayed a deep fascination with the lives of royalty and with queens in particular. Still, the question remains: what do these films really tell us about the women beneath the crowns? Drawing on films from the 1930s to those of today, Royal Portraits in Hollywood Filming the Lives of Queens investigates the ways in which these films reproduce history and represent women Though hardly progressive in nature many early films offered an acceptable nonthreatening way to present strong female characters in an economic and social landscape run almost exclusively by men Authors Elizabeth Ford and Deborah Mitchell track the evolution of queens on film noting how depictions of prominent women have changed over the past several decades and calling attention to the ways in which films both reflect and dictate the social norms of their eras By comparing historical records of monarchs such as Queen Christina of Sweden Catherine the Great Cleopatra and Elizabeth I with their onscreen personas and examining the biographical details of the actresses who portrayed these women Ford and Mitchell present a fascinating inquiry into issues of historical accuracy and gender politics in film Liv Ullmann Liv Ullmann,2006 A collection of interviews which provides an unusually intimate look at how a major filmmaker has developed her craft both in front of and behind the camera Miss Smilla's Feeling for Snow Peter Hoeg,1997 This volume gives an insight into the making of the film Miss Smilla s Feeling for Snow It contains interviews with the director Bille August and the cast Julia Ormond Gabriel Byrne Vanessa Redgrave Richard Harris and Jim Broadbent and also with the author himself Peter Hoeg American Book Publishing Record ,1997-05 American Cinematographer ,2001 Variety International Film Guide ,1998 Halliwell's Film, Video & DVD Guide ,2006 German Film & Literature ,1995 Archive UCLA Film and Television Archive,1995
