

Smoke

Every time I need a re-set Like when I move in Want to get rid of the past
Wash away density and negativity
I burn sage
Smoke palo santo
Smudge incense
Dropping the ash
Allowing the smoke to fill
And then to clear away

Smoke Dorianne Laux, 2013-12-20 Dorianne Laux's long awaited third book of poetry follows her collection What We Carry a finalist for the 1994 National Book Critics Circle Award for Poetry In Smoke Laux revisits familiar themes of family working class lives and the pleasures of the body in poetry that is vital and artfully crafted poetry that gets hard in the face of aloofness in the words of one reviewer In Smoke as in her previous work Laux weaves the warp and woof of ordinary lives into extraordinary and complex tapestries In The Shipfitter's Wife a woman recalls her husband's homecoming at the end of his work day Then I'd open his clothes and take the whole day inside me the ship's gray sides the miles of copper pipe the voice of the foreman clanging off the hull's silver ribs Spark of lead kissing metal The clamp the winch the white fire of the torch the whistle and the long drive home And in the title poem Laux muses on her own guilty pleasures Who would want to give it up the coal a cat's eye in the dark room no one there but you and your smoke the window cracked to street sounds the distant cries of living things Alone you are almost safe With her keen ear and attentive eye Dorianne Laux offers us a universe with which we are familiar but gives it to us fresh Dorianne Laux is the author of two previous collections of poetry from BOA Editions Ltd and is co author with Kim Addonizio of The Poet's Companion A Guide to the Joys of Writing Poetry W W Norton 1997 chosen as an alternate selection by several bookclubs Laux was the judge for the 2012 A Poulin Jr Poetry Contest and is a tenured professor in the creative writing program at the University of Oregon Laux lives in Eugene Oregon

Smoke is a soulful sensual exploration of love through the eyes of a woman who spent much of her twenties walking the periphery From the impassioned Locks to the tongue in cheek Arithmetic Smoke pleausurably swings between eroticism fantasy and full on confessional Rich in narrative lyricism and astonishing candor Smoke infuses an age old subject with sobering observations about sexuality politics race longing and as the title alludes the startling power of bad habits Fog and Smoke Katie Peterson, 2024-01-02 Peterson unfurls the quotidian fabric of our lives patterned with the difficulties of language and this moment Confusion frames the human predicament In Katie Peterson's Fog and Smoke confusion is literally our climate Writing to and from the California landscape Peterson sees fog and smoke as literal one a habitual natural weather event the other an increasingly common aftereffect of the West's drought caused fires But they are also metaphysical Fog and smoke reflect the true conditions and frustrations of our ability to perceive and to connect Peterson writes I've been speaking about it at a distance Now I want to talk about its thickness A person could get killed in here The collection moves through three sections First the poet follows her local fog s cyclical journey of descent and dispersion Second in a sort of pastoral interlude she travels widely almost erratically to the California desert the greater world and ancient history Finally she descends into the enclosed space of the household and the increased confinement and intimacy of raising a child during the pandemic Peterson unfolds the small moments that make up our lives and reveals the truths contained within them and her poems capture the lyricism of our daily rhythms the interruptions dialogues and epiphanies accumulated so largely on his hands as to compel him to omit many pieces he was desirous of preserving Ancient poems, ballads and songs of the peasantry of England Robert Bell,1857 The Collected Poems of Tennessee Williams Tennessee Williams,2016-05-20 All of the author s previously published poems including poems from the plays are in this definitive edition that comes with a CD of the author reading some of his poems in his unmistakable Mississippi drawl Few writers achieve success in more than one genre and yet if Tennessee Williams had never written a single play he would still be known as a distinguished poet The excitement compassion lyricism and humor that epitomize his writing for the theater are all present in his poetry It was as a young poet that Williams first came to the attention of New Directions founder James Laughlin who initially presented some of Williams verse in the New Directions anthology Five Young American Poets 1944 before he had any reputation as a playwright and later published the individual volumes of Williams s poetry In the Winter of Cities 1956 revised in 1964 and Androgyne Mon Amour 1977 In this definitive edition all of the playwright s collected and uncollected published poems along with substantial variants including poems from the plays have been assembled accompanied by explanatory notes and an introduction by Tennessee Williams scholars David Roessel and Nicholas Moschovakis The CD included with this paperback edition features Tennessee Williams reading in his delightful and mesmerizing Mississippi voice several of the whimsical folk poems he called his Blue Mountain Ballads poems dedicated to Carson McCullers and to his longtime companion Frank Merlo as well as his long early poem The Summer Belvedere
