Smoking Room:

An Atmospheric History of Smoking in Modern Britain Ivan Markovic, 2025-01-09 This book studies the historiography of smoking in modern Britain with a focus on the social cultural and emotional aspects of the practice Centring on four specific moments in modern British history the turn of the 20th century the Second World War the 1980s and the mid 2000s An Atmospheric History of Smoking not only traces the history of tobacco use but explores the cultural significance of and attitudes toward smoking Markovic combines oral histories with archival research and artefact analysis in order to evoke the unique social atmospheres surrounding smoking at each of these key periods within British history By analysing factors such as the encouragement of the practice as part of Home Front mood management during the Second World War or the impact of smoking on 1980s workplace relations this book highlights how the role of smoking in public spheres has undergone significant change throughout the 20th century Constructing the 2007 UK ban on smoking in public places as a turning point for the practice in the British cultural imagination Markovic examines how smoking has both been deemed out of place and yet still persists today

Morbidity and Mortality Weekly Report, 2012 Freedom to Smoke Jarrett Rudy, 2005 This book is a social and cultural history of smoking in Montreal from the arrival of cigarette mass production in Canada 1888 to the first studies linking the cigarette to lung cancer in 1950
