Williams, 2023-10-03 In The Cross of Christ in African American Christian Religious Experience Piety Politics and Protest Demetrius K Williams examines and explores the ideational importance and rhetorical function of cross language and terminology in Black religious experience through an ideological lens Williams argues that for the first time in Christian history the European nation of Portugal under the guidance of Prince Henry used the theology of the cross to justify and sustain an exclusive trade of Sub Saharan African peoples Claiming that Jesus died on the cross only to save lost souls provided a convincing rationale for Henry's exploratory voyages of discovery to West Africa to exclusively enslave Black bodies With the confirmation of Catholic Popes and the competition of other European nations this same rationale would inspire empire building colonization and slave trading justified on their newly constructed ideological narrative of compassionate evangelism to save lost souls Over time with massive conversions to the faith of their enslavers Black people's Christian religious experiences would articulate a response to the world that held them in thrall That response would be articulated most consistently and effectively through their understanding of the cross of Christ Williams affirms Howard Thurman's claim that by some amazing but vastly creative spiritual insight the slave undertook the redemption of a religion that the master had profaned in his midst The One Year Bible for Children Gilbert Beers, 2001 This new devotion in The One Year line combines beautiful full color illustrations with skilled writing for children and families One or two days a week the book of Psalms is studied with a reading and question A discussion section helps kids recall factual information learn how the lesson applies to their lives and learn how it relates to today The Story of Old Leland Mary Beth Munn Yntema, 2012-02 Leland was a Post Office an elementary school a telephone central a lake and a bridge All are gone except
