Repair the World Alexandre Gefen, 2024-08-19 Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism s heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it s a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it s upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen's wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature s effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remediative uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and

Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre's post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature s mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano's Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen's reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre's political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK

Making Nothing Happen Gavin D'Costa, Eleanor Nesbitt, Mark Pryce, Ruth Shelton, 2018-10-24 Making Nothing Happen is a conversation between five poet theologians who are broadly within the Christian tradition Nicola Slee Ruth Shelton Mark Pryce Eleanor Nesbitt and Gavin D Costa Together they form The Diviners a group which has been meeting together for a number of years for poetry and theological and literary reflection Each poet offers an illuminating reflection on how they understand the relation between poetry and faith rooting their reflections in their own writing and illustrating discussion with a selection of their own poems. The poets open up issues for deeper exploration and reflection including the nature of creativity and the distinction between divine and human creation the creative process as exploration epiphany and revelation the forging of identity through writing ways in which the arts reflect challenge and dialogue with faith and faith can inform and challenge the arts power and voice in poetry and faith and ways in which race gender and culture interact with and shape poetic and theological discourse This book will be of interest to poets and theologians to all who read poetry and are interested in the connections between literature and faith to those seeking inspiration for preaching liturgy and pastoral care and to those committed to the practice and nurturing of a contemplative attitude to life in which profound attention and respect are offered to words and to the creative Word at work Sitting in the Circle Jon Berenson, 2013-05 These 37 essays are rooted in the inspiration I experience in working with my patients and with participants at the Opening the Heart Workshop Though they are all very different in tone and content they are all about love in the small places off center stage They may have been about lifting a hosta leaf and findinging a spider s web in diamonds of morning dew or about watching new grass grow holding a weeping patient in my office watching a man outside my office drag his leg behind as he carries groceries home They are all I think small love stories CPR for the Soul Tom Stella, 2017-11-14 Saved by Beauty Roger Housden, 2012-11-13 When Roger Housden decided to travel to Iran and finally see the subject of his youthful fascination he was in his sixties By then he thought he had seen the world He was wrong It was a quest that changed him

forever In Iran Housden met with artists writers film makers and religious scholars who embody the long Iranian tradition of humanism and shared with him their belief in scholarship and artistry From the bustle of modern Tehran to the paradise gardens of Shiraz to the spectacular mosques and ancient palaces of Isfahan Housden met Iranians who were warm welcoming generous intellectually curious and altogether alive with their love for one another and for the faith and tradition that holds them together Saved by Beauty weaves a richly textured story of many threads It is a deeply poetic and perceptive appreciation of a culture that has endured for over three thousand years while it also portrays the creative and spiritual cultures within contemporary Iran While there Roger Housden was brought face to face with the reality that beauty and truth deceit and violence are inextricably mingled in the affairs of human life and was forever altered by it Wild Love Gill Edwards,2012-03-29 Whenever we try to be good or expect others to be good we disconnect from the freedom joy and unconditional love that is our natural birthright It is only when we aim to be happy and reach for our dreams that we reconnect with Source energy and release our loving creative and unique potential Leading spiritual writer Gill Edwards explains that a deep magical and joyous reality lies just beyond our reach if only we can find the key to unlock the door In WILD LOVE she helps us find that elusive key by giving up our old patterns of relating and aligning ourselves with Source energy WILD LOVE is a beautifully written and inspiring book which will help you to become wild and free and to become a passionate and visionary co creator of your own heaven and earth
