Perversion of Power Mary Gail Frawley-O'Dea, 2007 Since 2002 the Roman Catholic Church has been in crisis over the sexual abuse of minors by priests and the cover up of those crimes by bishops Over 11 000 alleged victims have reported their experiences to the Church and more than 4 700 priests since 1950 have been credibly accused of sexually victimizing minors The Church has paid over one billion dollars to adults who claim to have been sexually abused by priests and there is no end in sight to these lawsuits Celibacy homosexuality in the priesthood the infiltration into the priesthood of secular moral relativism too much liberalism in the Church since Vatican II damaging rollback of Vatican II reforms by conservative prelates all have been suggested as causes for the crisis This book however begins with the premise that because the pattern of abuse and cover up was so similar across the world there is something fundamentally awry with Church traditions and power structures in relationship to sexuality and sexual abuse Specifically in chapters on suffering and sadomasochism bodies and gender desire and sexuality celibacy and homosexuality the author concludes that aspects of the Catholic theology of sexuality set the stage for the abuse of minors and its cover up Frawley O Dea also analyzes the American bishops lack of pastoral care and tendency towards clerical narcissism the belief that the needs of the hierarchy represent the needs of the wider Church as central factors in the scandal She balances this criticism with a discussion of the backgrounds of the bishops presiding over the crisis and the challenges they faced in their relationships with the Pope and Vatican officials Drawing on twenty years of clinical experience she imagines the dynamics of sexual abuse both from the victim s point of view and from the priest s and she probes why the Church hierarchy fellow priests and lay people were silent for so long Finally Frawley O Dea examines factors internal to the Church and outside of it that drew this scandal into the public square and kept it there

Erotic Attunement Cristina L. H. Traina,2011-12-01 Heightened awareness of the problem of sexual abuse has led to deep anxiety over adults touching children in nearly any context Though our society has moved toward increasingly strict enforcement of this taboo studies have shown that young children need regular human contact and the benefits of breastfeeding have been widely extolled Exploring the complicated history of love desire gender sexuality parenthood and inequality Erotic Attunement probes the disquieting issue of how we can draw a clear line between natural affection toward children and perverse exploitation of them Cristina L H Traina demonstrates that we cannot determine what is wrong about sexual abuse without first understanding what is good about appropriate sensual affection Pondering topics such as the importance of touch in nurturing children the psychology of abuse and victimhood and recent ideologies of motherhood she argues that we must expand our philosophical and theological language of physical love and make a distinction between sexual love and erotic love Taking on theological and ethical arguments over the question of sexuality between unequals she arrives at the provocative conclusion that it can be destructive to completely bar eroticism from these relationships

Sexuality: God's Gift Anne Krabill Hershberger,2010-06-17 Big business makes big money selling a phony notion of what we want and need as sexual people Ads insist that certain products will make us more sexually appealing But what we really want and need is true intimacy the knowledge that we matter to another person and are loved for who we are We all are sexual beings all of our lives and relate to each other sexually all the time God marvelously made us this way Using the metaphor of sexuality as a good gift from God this book offers Christian resources for living a sexually healthy and fulfilling life Extraordinarily comprehensive nuanced and sensitive even richer than its predecessor It is a splendid resource for all Christians who wish to live more deeply in gratitude to God for their own sexuality James B Nelson professor emeritus of Christian ethics United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities An important contribution to Christians seeking to celebrate their sexuality with holiness and integrity The Rev Debra W Haffner executive director Religious Institute Westport Connecticut
