Tenfeettall A Jockey With A Dream:

Ten Feet Tall Lillis Tonks, 1987 In the Zone Peter Wolfe, 1997 The Twilight Zone explores the possibilities inhering in the ordinary A Twilight Zone episode can move us by being poignant and intimate rambunctious or thought provoking It can also be orchestrated as a set of intertwined plot developments or as a serial progression But regardless of whether it takes place on an asteroid in a city pool room or in the backwoods it will usually convey both a folklorist's eye for detail and the born raconteur's sense of pace Rod Serling the show's founder main scriptwriter and artistic director knew how much burden he could place on his rhetorical and dramatic gifts Deservedly celebrated as a pioneer in TV science fiction he also writes about history and loyalty the grip of everyday reality and the dangers of both forgetting about one's ghosts and giving them the upper hand The Gambler and the Bug Boy John Christgau, 2007-01-01 An account of a dark chapter in American horse racing history documents the scandal that ensued in 1939 and 1940 Los Angeles when notorious L A bookmaker Bernard Big Mooney threatened young jockeys if they did not fix races with the unwilling assistance of Albert Siler a young apprentice rider manipulated by the criminal gambler Dreams Catch on Ardyth Barber, 2012-01-04 Dreams Catch On is the story of how a man and woman go against conventional thinking winning their struggle and falling in love Women in the 1870 and 1880's such as Addie are still held back She is smart and raised in an intellectually liberal household however she is not allowed to participate in sports such as horse racing But the situation she finds herself in forces her to go against convention Addie secretly desires John a fellow writer at the newspaper where Addie works When he tells her he is marrying Elizabeth Hemings he breaks her heart To emotionally recover Addie directs her attention to two very special horses Bramble and the Duke of Magenta But training and maybe even jockeying has never been done by a woman before She meets many difficulties but luckily finds an equally unconventional individual Brad to train her horse and teach her to jockey They don't realize it but they set off forces that change the social situation of the era forever and fall in love in the process
