Tennis Our Waylet No Longer Included:

Grown Men Sheelagh Mawe, 2007-07 Austin Sinclair and Jack Winston grew up together on the poor side of town one quiet sober and tenacious the other a reckless charmer always seeking a challenge And they shared a love for tennis that forged an unlikely bond and incited a fierce rivalry between them Then adult life took them in different directions Now they are grown men mature accomplished and middle aged And a chance reunion in a crowded restaurant results in a friendly fateful invitation to compete once again at Austin's exclusive tennis club But from the first serve on an impeccable clay court to the final breathless point of a truly unforgettable match unresolved resentments and tensions will determine the pace of the play For every lob and backhand every point surrendered or won brings with it serious questions about the past and the choices made With each set comes potentially explosive revelations about love money and the nature of competition

Everybody's Magazine, 1925      Tennis and Philosophy David Baggett, 2021-05-11 Tennis smashed onto the worldwide athletic scene soon after its modern rules and equipment were introduced in nineteenth century England Exciting competitive and uniquely accessible to people of all ages and talent levels tennis continues to enjoy popularity both as a recreational activity and a spectator sport Life imitates sport in Tennis and Philosophy Editor David Baggett approaches tennis not only as a game but also as a surprisingly rich resource for philosophical analysis He assembles a team of champion scholars including David Foster Wallace Robert R Clewis David Detmer Mark Huston Tommy Valentini Neil Delaney and Kevin Kinghorn to consider numerous philosophical issues within the sport Profiles of tennis greats such as John McEnroe Roger Federer the Williams sisters and Arthur Ashe are paired with pertinent topics from the ethics of rage to the role of rivalry Whether entertaining metaphysical arguments or examining the nature of beauty these essays promise insightful discussion of one of the world's most popular sports      Old-House Journal, 1980-10 Old House Journal is the original magazine devoted to restoring and preserving old houses For more than 35 years our mission has been to help old house owners repair restore update and decorate buildings of every age and architectural style Each issue explores hands on restoration techniques practical architectural guidelines historical overviews and homeowner stories all in a trusted authoritative voice

Beneath the Skin Nicci French, 2009-09-26 An absolutely first rate thriller from the author of Killing Me Softly about three women being terrorized by the same stalker Zoe Jenny Nadia Three women of varying ages and backgrounds with little else in common but for one thing Someone has sent them each a note informing them that they will be killed A cruel joke A hoax The police don't seem to think so Now with no clear suspect and amid the growing threat of violence the victims become the accused as authorities dig into their backgrounds for clues as to why they might have attracted the unrelenting attention of a killer As Zoe Jenny and Nadia find themselves being victimized twice over once by the faceless stalker and again by the police each must ultimately face the question of which is stronger the instinct to survive or the desire to destroy Powerfully intricate Publishers Weekly      American Magazine, 1922      Association Men, 1919      s.

award's school chronicle. ,1881      Feminist Reconstructions in Psychology Mary Gergen,2000-10-03 Feminist Reconstructions in Psychology introduces a distinctive new mode of doing psychology This psychology is based on an increasingly popular range of ideas called social constructionism Within the book new forms of theory and methods of inquiry relating social constructionism to feminist topics are introduced Each chapter highlights different topics of special concern within gender studies especially the psychology of women The first chapter outlines the purposes of the book and positions social constructionism in relation to the more traditional feminist psychologies empiricist and feminist standpoint Given the trend toward social constructionism the author thinks the broad audience of people doing gender work will be interested in becoming familiar with this approach to the field The second and third chapters are focused on narrative methods as a means for studying gender differences in popular autobiographies The discussions center on differences in stories of achievement family love and embodiment Quotations from well known personalities such as Donald Trump and Martina Navratilova enrich the text The fourth fifth and sixth chapters involve issues of menopause with a focus group methodology a historical look at the male gaze as it is poised on the Naked Maja painting by Goya and how relationships function within imaginal conversations The two final chapters in the book are exemplars of a recent innovation in the field called performative psychology One monologue is about aging in contemporary society and the other is a feminist critique of aspects of postmodernism itself The book draws from the central tenets of postmodern inquiry as played out in the positive framework of social constructionism Emphasized are reflexivity the social basis of reality making the breakdown of traditional narrative forms the loss of objectivity as a scientific standard and the possibilities for new forms of doing research In this respect the book is unique and serves to provide a point of view on an intriguing movement that is gaining momentum across the social sciences and humanities It is hoped that this book might serve as a catalyst for further innovative work in psychology This text encourages such moves by its own irreverence for traditions and its overt efforts to break down resistances to creativity in the field      Congressional Record United States.
