Terra Australis The Furthest Shore:

The A to Z of the Discovery and Exploration of Australia Alan Day, 2009-06-19 This engaging reference examines the history of the search for and the discovery of Australia taking full account of the evidence for and the speculation surrounding possible earlier contacts by the Ancient Egyptians Arabs and Chinese seamen Day brings the expeditions to life expressing the desires that drove great sea captains deeper into turbulent waters searching for caches of spice silks and precious metals Covers a wide variety of topics including Seamen from eight nations The recovery of storm wrecked ships Diplomatic treaties Priority of discovery disputes Military and civil explorers and surveyors Topographical features Geographical terms and places Rivers and river system

The Acadian Diaspora Christopher Hodson, 2012-05-01 Late in 1755 an army of British regulars and Massachusetts volunteers completed one of the cruelest most successful military campaigns in North American history capturing and deporting seven thousand French speaking Catholic Acadians from the province of Nova Scotia and chasing an equal number into the wilderness of eastern Canada Thousands of Acadians endured three decades of forced migrations and failed settlements that shuttled them to the coasts of South America the plantations of the Caribbean the frigid islands of the South Atlantic the swamps of Louisiana and the countryside of central France The Acadian Diaspora tells their extraordinary story in full for the first time illuminating a long forgotten world of imperial desperation experimental colonies and naked brutality Using documents culled from archives in France Great Britain Canada and the United States Christopher Hodson reconstructs the lives of Acadian exiles as they traversed oceans and continents pushed along by empires eager to populate new frontiers with inexpensive pliable white farmers Hodson s compelling narrative situates the Acadian diaspora within the dramatic geopolitical changes triggered by the Seven Years War Faced with redrawn boundaries and staggering national debts imperial architects across Europe used the Acadians to realize radical plans tropical settlements without slaves expeditions to the unknown southern continent and perhaps strangest of all agricultural colonies within old regime France itself In response Acadians embraced their status as human commodities using intimidation and even violence to tailor their communities to the superheated Atlantic market for cheap mobile labor Through vivid intimate stories of Acadian exiles and the diverse transnational cast of characters that surrounded them The Acadian Diaspora presents the eighteenth century Atlantic world from a new angle challenging old assumptions about uprooted peoples and the very nature of early modern empire

An Historical Geography of Europe Robin Alan Butlin, Robert A. Dodgshon, 1998 An Historical Geography of Europe represents the first multi authored comprehensive study on the subject It provides the reader with an analytical and explanatory account of European historical geography from classical times to the modern period including the vast changes to landscape settlements population and in political and cultural structures and character that have taken place since 1500 The book takes account of the vast volume of relevant research and literature that has been published over the past two or three decades in order to achieve a unique coverage and synthesis of this very broad range of evidence and opinion and has tried to engage with many of the main themes and debates to give a clear indication of changing ideas and interpretations of the subject This book brings together British and European authors from a number of disciplines who have considerable distinction in the various fields of historical geography and related fields including a significant number who have already written on the wider problem of European historical geography It is amply illustrated with maps and diagrams to present many of the issues in a visual form The Primacy of the Image in Northern European Art, 1400-1700 Debra Cashion, Henry Luttikhuisen, Ashley West, 2017-08-21 The Primacy of the Image in Northern Art 1400 1700 Essays in Honor of Larry Silver is an anthology of 42 essays written by distinguished scholars on current research and methodology in the art history of Northern Europe of the late medieval and early modern periods Written in tribute to Larry Silver Farquhar Professor of the History of Art at the University of Pennsylvania the topics are inspired by Professor Silver's renowned scholarship in these areas Early Netherlandish Painting and Prints Sixteenth Century Netherlandish Painting Manuscripts Patrons and Printed Books Durer and the Power of Pictures Prints and Printmaking and Seventeenth Century Painting Studies of specific artists include Hans Memling Albrecht Durer Hans Baldung Grien Hieronymus Bosch Pieter Bruegel Hendrick Goltzius and Rembrandt

Imagining The Pacific Bernard Smith, 2018-06-01 In this book Bernard Smith explores in more depth the issues first dealt with in his classic European Vision and the South Pacific He continues his careful examination of how European artists and scientists travelling to the Pacific during the time of Cook's voyages were stimulated to see the world in new and creative ways In analysing intensely personal responses to a new accessible environment Bernard Smith shows how science topography and travel had an impact on current pictorial genres Among many surprising findings he argues that the obligation science placed on art to provide information was a factor in the triumph of Impressionism during the late nineteenth century With its breadth of vision and attention to detail its exploration of the complex relationship between the pursuit of knowledge and the exercise of power Imagining the Pacific takes its place alongside Bernard Smith's earlier work as a milestone in historical scholarship Navigating by the Southern Cross Kenneth Morgan, 2021-01-28 In this comprehensive study Kenneth Morgan provides an authoritative account of European exploration and discovery in Australia The book presents a detailed chronological overview of European interests in the Australian continent from initial speculations about the Great Southern Land to the major hydrographic expeditions of the 19th century In particular he analyses the early crossings of the Dutch in the 17th century the exploits of English buccaneer adventurer William Dampier the famous voyages of James Cook and Matthew Flinders and the little known French annexation of Australia in 1772 Introducing new findings and drawing on the latest in historiographical research this book situates developments in navigation nautical astronomy and cartography within the broader contexts of imperial colonial and maritime history The

Aboriginal Male in the Enlightenment World Shino Konishi, 2015-10-06 This is the first historical study of indigenous Australian masculinity Using the reactions of eighteenth century western explorers to Aboriginal men Konishi argues that these encounters were not as negative as has been thought

Virtual Voyages Paul Longley Arthur, 2011 Virtual Voyages is a fascinating account of the European discovery of the elusive great south land told through the literature of imaginary voyages Written at the height of the era of European maritime exploration these bizarre and captivating tales with their wildly imaginative visions of antipodean inversion and strangeness reveal a hidden history of attitudes to colonization By exposing the relationship between myth and reality in the antipodes this book casts new light on the power of fiction to influence history

Australia as the Antipodal Utopia Daniel Hempel, 2019-10-31 Australia has a fascinating history of visions As the antipode to Europe the continent provided a radically different and uniquely fertile ground for envisioning places spaces and societies Australia as the Antipodal Utopia evaluates this complex intellectual history by mapping out how Western visions of Australia evolved from antiquity to the modern period It argues that because of its antipodal relationship with Europe Australia is imagined as a particular form of utopia but since one person's utopia is more often than not another's dystopia Australia's utopian quality is both complex and highly ambiguous Drawing on the rich field of utopian studies Australia as the Antipodal Utopia provides an original and insightful study of Australia's place in the Western imagination

British Maritime Enterprise in the New World Peter T. Bradley, 1999 This is a survey of the voyages of English navigators from the pioneers of the late 15th century to the scientific expeditions of the early 19th century not only in South American waters but also the Caribbean and North America

The First Wave Gillian Dooley, Danielle Clode, 2019-06-20 The European maritime explorers who first visited the bays and beaches of Australia brought with them diverse assumptions about the inhabitants of the country most of them based on sketchy or non-existent knowledge contemporary theories like the idea of the noble savage and an automatic belief in the superiority of European civilisation Mutual misunderstanding was almost universal whether it resulted in violence or apparently friendly transactions Written for a general audience The First Wave brings together a variety of contributions from thought provoking writers including both original research and creative work Our contributors explore the dynamics of these early encounters from Indigenous cosmological perspectives and European history of ideas from representations in art and literature to the role of animals food and fire in mediating first contact encounters and Indigenous agency in exploration and shipwrecks The First Wave includes poetry by Yankunytjatjara Aboriginal poet Ali Cobby Eckermann fiction by Miles Franklin award winning Noongar author Kim Scott and Danielle Clode and an account of the arrival of Christian missionaries in the Torres Strait Islands by Torres Strait political leader George Mye

s literature gender and feminism through literary criticism and the work of women literary theorists

A Draught of the South Land Paul Moon, 2024-01-01 The story of how the map of New Zealand emerged is a fascinating one The first full map of the islands was published in London in 1773 which might seem the natural starting point but over the preceding 150 years fragments of charts and intelligence about New Zealand ricocheted around various parts of the world In A Draught of the South Land Paul Moon provides the first comprehensive account of this piecemeal process Moon's investigation covers several continents over more than a century and reveals the personalities blunders strategic miscalculations scientific brilliance and imperial power plays that were involved Above all he examines the roles played by explorers and traders Māori and European rulers scientific societies and military groups as well as specialist cartographers and publishers At a time when maps as colonial tools enablers of trade and objects of curiosity are being studied anew his careful analysis and engaging narrative will be of interest to scholars everywhere

Nature's Argonaut Edward Duyker, 1998-02-08 Nature's Argonaut is the first full biography of this important eighteenth century naturalist who not only circled the globe under sail but ranged as far north as the Arctic and as far south as Tierra del Fuego Edward Duyker pays particular attention to Solander's role as a naturalist on the Endeavour during the ship's voyage along the east coast of Australia and to his pioneering contribution to the scientific study of the new continent The author has also provided a comprehensive account of Solander's life and his contribution to the foundations of modern plant and animal taxonomy The life of Daniel Solander stamped with the enquiring spirit of the Enlightenment is one of the grand adventures of the eighteenth century Aside from the historic Endeavour voyage Solander's Arctic travels his involvement in industrial espionage in England on behalf of Sweden his thwarted love for the daughter of his mentor Linnaeus and his friendships with such men as Joseph Banks James Cook Samuel Johnson Matthew Boulton and Benjamin Franklin make Solander an exciting biographical subject

Imagology Manfred Beller, Joseph Theodoor Leerssen, 2007 How do national stereotypes emerge To which extent are they determined by historical or ideological circumstances or else by cultural literary or discursive conventions This first inclusive critical compendium on national characterizations and national cultural or ethnic stereotypes contains 120 articles by 73 contributors Its three parts offer 1 a number of in depth survey articles on ethnic and national images in European literatures and cultures over many centuries 2 an encyclopedic survey of the stereotypes and characterizations traditionally ascribed to various ethnicities and nationalities and 3 a conspectus of relevant concepts in various cultural fields and scholarly disciplines The volume as a whole as well as each of the articles has extensive bibliographies for further critical reading Imagology is intended both for students and for senior scholars facilitating not only a first acquaintance with the historical development typology and poetics of national stereotypes but also a deepening of our understanding and analytical perspective by interdisciplinary and comparative contextualization and extensive cross referencing

A Companion to Australian Art Christopher Allen, 2021-04-27 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia's first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation's colonial art history Rethinking Australia's Art History Susan Lowish, 2018-05-30 This book aims to redefine Australia's earliest art history by chronicling for the first time the birth of the category Aboriginal art tracing the term's use through published literature in the late eighteenth nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Susan Lowish reveals how the idea of Aboriginal art developed in the European imagination manifested in early literature and became a distinct classification with its own criteria and form Part of the larger story of Aboriginal European engagement this book provides a new vision for an Australian art history reconciled with its colonial origins and in recognition of what came before the contemporary phenomena of Aboriginal art The Cambridge History of Science: Volume 4, Eighteenth-Century Science David C. Lindberg, Roy Porter, Ronald L. Numbers, 2003-03-17 The fullest and most complete survey of the development of science in the eighteenth century Naturalists at Sea Glyn Williams, 2013-10-22 DIVDIV Tales of the intrepid early naturalists who set sail on dangerous voyages of discovery in the vast unknown Pacific div div
