Designs and Anthropologies

Keith M. Murphy,Eitan Y. Wilf,2021-11 The chapters in this captivating volume demonstrate the importance and power of design and the ubiquitous and forceful effects it has on human life within the study of anthropology The scholars explore the interactions between anthropology and design through a cross disciplinary approach and while their approaches vary in how they specifically consider design they are all centered around the design and anthropology relationship The chapters look at anthropology for design in which anthropological methods and concepts are mobilized in the design process anthropology of design in which design is positioned as an object of ethnographic inquiry and critique and design for anthropology in which anthropologists borrow concepts and practices from design to enhance traditional ethnographic forms Collectively the chapters argue that bringing design and anthropology together can transform both fields in more than one way and that to tease out the implications of using design to reimagine ethnography and of using ethnography to reimagine design we need to consider the historical specificity of their entanglements Rural Development Abstracts, 1990 Practicing

Anthropology, 1993 Bodies Robyn Longhurst, 2004-01-14 This is one of the first books to introduce students to the key concepts and debates surrounding the relationship between bodily boundaries, object materiality and spaces. The text includes original interview and focus group data informed by feminist theory on the body and uses case studies to illustrate the social construction of bodies. It will critically engage students in topical questions around sexuality, cultural differences and women's subordination to men. Paul J. Crutzen and the Anthropocene: A New Epoch in Earth's History

Susanne Benner, Gregor Lax, Paul J. Crutzen, Ulrich Pöschl, Jos Lelieveld, Hans Günter Brauch, 2022-01-01 This book outlines the development and perspectives of the Anthropocene concept by Paul J. Crutzen and his colleagues from its inception to its implications for the sciences, humanities, society and politics. The main text consists primarily of articles from peer-reviewed scientific journals and other scholarly sources. It comprises selected articles on the Anthropocene published by Paul J. Crutzen and a selection of related articles mostly but not exclusively by colleagues with whom he collaborated closely. In the year 2000 Nobel Laureate Paul J. Crutzen proposed the Anthropocene concept as a new epoch in Earth's history. Comprehensive collection of articles on the Anthropocene by Paul J. Crutzen and his colleagues. Unique primary research literature and Crutzen's comprehensive bibliography. Paul Crutzen's scientific investigations into human influences on atmospheric chemistry and physics, the climate and the Earth system leading to the conception of the Anthropocene. Reflections on the Anthropocene and its implications. Bibliometric review of the spread of the use of the Anthropocene concept in the Natural and Social Sciences, Humanities and Law. Agri-environmental Governance as an Assemblage Jérémie Forney, Chris

Rosin, Hugh Campbell, 2018-03-28 In recent decades the governance of the environment in agri-food systems has emerged as a crucial challenge. A multiplicity of actors have been enrolled in this process with the private sector and civil society progressively becoming key components in a global context often described as neoliberalization. Agri-environmental governance (AEG) thus gathers a highly complex assemblage of actors and instruments with multiple interrelations. This book addresses this complexity, challenging traditional modes of research and explanation in social science and agri-food studies. To do so it draws on multiple theoretical and methodological insights applied to case studies from Asia, Europe, Africa and the Americas. It elaborates an emergent approach to AEG practices as assemblages looking at the coming together of multiple actors with diverse trajectories and objectives. The book lays the foundations for an encompassing theoretical framework that transcends pre-existing categories as well as promoting innovative methodologies which integrate the role of social actors including scientists in the construction of new assemblages. The chapters define first the multiplicities and agencies inherent to AEG assemblages. A second set tackles the question of the politics in AEG assemblages where political hierarchies interweave with economic power and the search for more democratic and participative approaches Finally these insights are developed in the form of assemblage practice and methodology The book challenges social scientists to confront the shortcomings of existing approaches and consider alternative answers to questions about environmental governance of agri food systems

Between Care and Criminality Helena Zewer, 2023-12-15 Between Care and Criminality examines social welfare's encounter with migration and marriage in a period of intensified border control in Melbourne Australia It offers an in depth ethnographic account of the effort to prevent forced marriage in the aftermath of a 2013 law that criminalized the practice Disproportionately targeted toward Muslim migrant communities prevention efforts were tasked with making the family relations and marital practices of migrants objects of policy knowledge in the name of care and community empowerment Through tracing the everyday ways that direct service providers police and advocates learned to identify imminent marriages and at risk individuals this book reveals how the domain of social welfare becomes the new frontier where the settler colonial state judges good citizenship In doing so it invites social welfare to reflect on how migrant conceptions of familial care personhood and mutual obligation become structured by the violence of displacement borders and conditional citizenship
