Border Lampedusa

Gabriele Proglia,Laura Odasso,2017-10-19 This book analyses the European border at Lampedusa as a metaphor for visible and invisible powers that impinge on relations between Europe and Africa Asia Taking an interdisciplinary approach political social cultural economic and artistic it explores the island as a place where social relations based around race gender sex age and class are being reproduced and or subverted The authors argue that Lampedusa should be understood as a synecdoche for European borders and boundaries Widening the classical definition of the term border the authors examine the different meanings assigned to the term by migrants the local population seafarers and associative actors based on their subjective and embodied experiences They reveal how migration policies international relations with African Middle Eastern and Asian countries and the perpetuation of new forms of colonization and imperialism entail heavy consequences for the European Union This work will appeal to a wide readership from scholars of migration anthropology and sociology to students of political science Italian African and cultural studies

The New European Cinema

Rosalind Galt,2006 Rosalind Galt offers innovative readings of some of the most popular and influential European films of the 1990s including Emir Kusturica s Underground Lars Von Trier s Zentropa and Giuseppe

Tornatore's Cinema Paradiso      Me and My House Magdalena J. Zaborowska, 2018-03-29 The last sixteen years of James Baldwin's life 1971-87 unfolded in a village in the South of France in a sprawling house nicknamed Chez Baldwin In Me and My House Magdalena J. Zaborowska employs Baldwin's home space as a lens through which to expand his biography and explore the politics and poetics of blackness queerness and domesticity in his complex and underappreciated later works Zaborowska shows how the themes of dwelling and black queer male sexuality in The Welcome Table Just above My Head and If Beale Street Could Talk directly stem from Chez Baldwin's influence on the writer The house was partially torn down in 2014 Accessible heavily illustrated and drawing on interviews with Baldwin's friends and lovers unpublished letters and manuscripts Me and My House offers new insights into Baldwin's life writing and relationships making it essential reading for all students scholars and fans of Baldwin

Art in Education D. Atkinson, 2005-12-28 Distinctive and unique in its approach this book opens up art education to the broader field of social enquiry into practice subjectivity and identity It draws upon important developments in contemporary philosophy and the social sciences and applies this to the professional field of art in education It opens new perspectives for teachers teacher educators and student teachers      Displaced Women Lucia Aiello, Joy Charnley, Mariangela Palladino, 2014-03-17 The essays included in this volume mostly originate from the conference organised by the editors at Glasgow Women's Library in March 2012 Language multilingual narratives and interaction between cultures and languages were key themes of the conference Interdisciplinary and international the conference like this edited volume brought together specialists working in a range of fields and provided an opportunity for exchanges between historians sociologists scientists and literary scholars as well as between theoreticians and practitioners academics and non academics In spite of these many different approaches all the papers presented here transcend the idea of national identity as an epic heritage or destiny both linguistic and literary and suggest a much more fluid definition of citizenship Working from this perspective and within this general framework both the editors and the contributors of this volume encourage a broader discussion on women's narratives of displacement that compels us to rethink the notions of mother tongue and native speaker and raises philosophical questions about linguistic ownership in other words whether a language is owned appropriated imposed or rejected and how women experience and express their sense of permanent strangeness
