

29th Texas Cavalry & 20th Texas Cavalry

29th Texas Cavalry

This regiment was organized in July 1862 by Clarksville, Texas, newspaper publisher Charles DeMorse, who served as its colonel. In March 1863 Col. DeMorse received orders to move his regiment to Indian Territory to join Brig. Gen. Douglas H. Cooper's Mounted Indian Brigade. The regiment participated in an attack on the Fort Scott-Fort Gibson supply train at Cabin Creek on July 1-2, 1863, after which the regiment assembled at Honey Springs where they faced their first major engagement.

A column of men kept up by the skirmishers on both sides. The enemy advanced in line of battle along our entire front, keeping up a very rapid and vigorous fire of small arms. We could see the enemy had approached within 20 yards, and then poured a galling fire upon them in the mass, some of which right hand guns away and were fast being loaded. We fell back to a small branch directly in our rear, where we made a stand, supposing that I was supported by the whole brigade. I saw Maj. Carroll on the right to ascertain the position of our regiments. The Major was returning. I went to ascertain the cause, when I found that all our right hand guns away, and that the enemy were passing rapidly in our rear on the right. I immediately ordered the remainder of my men out of the branch, and being cut off from our horses, and the main command, we made our way up Elk Creek, thence on foot to North Park.

Lt. Col. Dan C. Walsh, 29th Texas Cavalry, CSA

20th Texas Cavalry

Col. Thomas Coke Bass organized this regiment in the late spring of 1862. Prior to Honey Springs the 20th Texas Cavalry fought at Prairie Grove, Arkansas. In early November 1862, the regiment was dismissed and served the remainder of the war as foot soldiers.

We had a fight with the enemy and they retreated to back the field around the river and our pickets in and marched to the creek where we were camped and we formed in line of the creek and they began with their cannon and filled the air with bullets and grape shot. We lay down and our fire till the enemy came in forty yards. We lay down and they marched on and killed our men before they came in range of our guns. When they came near enough to our guns it and killed lots of them, though they made us talk, and the Texas boys had to fly. The battle was fiercer than we ever saw before.
