Tertullian The Treatise Against Hermogenes:

The Treatise Against Hermogenes Tertullian, 1956 Hermogenes was still living when Carthage's native son took up his pen to oppose him but that did not make Tertullian's polemic more considerate or his satire less passionate and biting Hermogenes taught a form of materialism Tertullian brilliantly convicts him of contradiction Tertullian Johannes Quasten, Quintus Septimius Florens Tertullianus, Tertullian, Joseph C. Plumpe, 1956 Tertullian Against Hermogenes Tertullian, 2012-08-21 We present a volume widely differing in its contents from those which have gone before it contains the works of the great founder of Latin Christianity the versatile and brilliant Tertullian Not all his works indeed for they could not be contained in one of our books This book however considerably overruns the promised number of pages and gives three complete parts of Tertullian's writings according to the classification of our Editor in chief The Fourth volume will begin with the fourth class of his works those which exhibit our author's ascetic ideas and the minor morals of the Primitive Christians that collection being closed by the four treatises which were written in support of a defined and schismatical Montanism The Editor in chief has been in active correspondence with representative men of diverse theological schools hoping to secure their co-operation in editorial work As yet however the result has not enabled us to announce more than one additional collaborator the rapidity with which the successive volumes must be furnished proving an almost insurmountable obstacle in the way of securing as co-workers divines actively engaged in professional duties and literary tasks The sympathy and encouragement which have been expressed by all with whom a correspondence has been opened have been most cheering To the Rev Dr Riddle of Hartford well known as one of the most learned of the American Revisers of the New Testament we are indebted for his consent to edit one of the concluding volumes of the Series accompanying it with a Bibliographical Review of the entire Literature of the Patrologia of the Ante Nicene period supplying therein a compendious view of all the writers upon this period and of the latest critical editions of the Ante Nicene authors themselves The editor in chief will continue his annotations and the usual prefaces in Professor Riddle's volume but will be relieved in some degree of the laborious and minute attention to details which earlier volumes have necessarily exacted Against Hermogenes Tertullian, 2018-08-19 The doctrine of Hermogenes has this taint of novelty He is in short a man living in the world at the present time by his very nature a heretic and turbulent withal who mistakes loquacity for eloquence and supposes impudence to be firmness and judges it to be the duty of a good conscience to speak ill of individuals Moreover he despises God's law in his painting maintaining repeated marriages alleges the law of God in defense of lust and yet despises it in respect of his art He falsifies by a twofold process with his cautery and his pen He is a thorough adulterer both doctrinally and carnally since he is rank indeed with the contagion of your marriage hacks and has also failed in cleaving to the rule of faith as much as the apostle's own Hermogenes However never mind the man when it is his doctrine which I question He does not appear to acknowledge any other Christ as Lord though he holds Him in a different way but by this difference in his faith he really makes Him another being nay he takes from Him everything which is God since he will not have it that He made all things of nothing For turning away from Christians to the philosophers from the Church to the Academy and the Porch he learned there from the Stoics how to place Matter on the same level with the Lord just as if it too had existed ever both unborn and unmade having no beginning at all nor end out of which according to him the Lord afterwards created all things

H. Waszink,1955 Ancient Greek Cosmogony Andrew Gregory,2008-01-03 Ancient Greek Cosmogony is the first detailed comprehensive account of ancient Greek theories of the origins of the world It covers the period from 800 BC to 600 AD beginning with myths concerning the creation of the world the cosmogonies of all the major Greek and Roman thinkers and the debate between Greek philosophical cosmogony and early Christian views It argues that Greeks formulated many of the perennial problems of philosophical cosmogony and produced philosophically and scientifically interesting answers The atomists argued that our world was one among many worlds and came about by chance Plato argued that it is unique and the product of design Empedocles and the Stoics in quite different ways argued that there was an unending cycle whereby the world is generated destroyed and generated again Aristotle on the other hand argued that there was no such thing as cosmogony and the world has always existed Reactions to and developments of these ideas are traced through Hellenistic philosophy and the debates in early Christianity on whether God created the world from nothing or from some pre existing chaos The book examines issues of the origins of life and the elements for the ancient Greeks and how the cosmos will come to an end It argues that there were several interesting debates between Greek philosophers on the fundamental principles of cosmogony and that these debates were influential on the development of Greek philosophy and science The Johannine Corpus in the Early Church Charles E. Hill,2004-03-18 How were the Johannine books of the New Testament received by second century Christians and accorded scriptural status Charles E Hill offers a fresh and detailed examination of this question He dismantles the long held theory that the Fourth Gospel was generally avoided or resisted by orthodox Christians while being treasured by various dissenting groups throughout most of the second century Integrating a wide range of literary and non literary sources this book demonstrates the failure of several old stereotypes about the Johannine literature It also collects the full evidence for the second century Church's conception of these writings as a group the Johannine books cannot be isolated from each other but must be recognized as a corpus

Hughes,2024-11-05 In Scripting the Son Kyle R Hughes analyzes how dialogical texts in the Old Testament presented early Christian exegetes with riddles that were best solved through a person centered reading strategy known as prosopological exegesis From the method s roots in the pages of the New Testament through its increasingly careful application in the hands of church fathers such as Justin Irenaeus Tertullian and Origen this book traces how prosopological exegesis contributed to the development of Christology in the pre Nicene period By examining the origins and evolution of this approach to biblical interpretation Hughes demonstrates how the very words of Scripture exerted a pressure for a Trinitarian understanding of God that was rooted in the Old Testament and aligned with the emerging rule of faith exemplifying the dynamic interplay between biblical interpretation and doctrinal formulation in the early centuries of Christianity Augustine: De fide et symbolo Meijering,2023-07-17 Archè J.C.M. van Winden,2015-12-22 During the past forty years J C M van Winden OFM Emeritus Professor of Early Christian Literature at Leiden University and editor of Vigiliae Christianae has built up an impressive body of published research on early Christian thought and related areas of Greek and Jewish philosophy In this volume in honour of his 75th birthday his more important contributions originally published in a wide range of journals and other publications have been collected together These are grouped together in five categories The arch in early christian thought Essays on the Church Fathers Philonica Plotiniana Essays on the relation between Greek and Patristic Thought The volume includes a hitherto unpublished survey article on early Christian exegesis of the beginning in Gen 1 1 in German English translations of five contributions originally published in Dutch and a complete bibliography of Pater van Winden s scholarly work Der Same Seths Gesine Schenke Robinson,Gesa Schenke,Uwe-Karsten Plisch,2012-06-08 During a lifetime of scholarship and teaching Hans Martin Schenke produced a large number of publications in the fields of New Testament Gnosticism and Coptology This collection of his essays and book reviews bears witness to his love for the linguistic aspects of Coptology and illustrates his wide ranging interest in the development of early Christianity His insights and deep understanding of Gnostic beliefs and systems as a background for interpreting the New Testament make his contributions to this discipline very rewarding and indispensable
