Testimonios Tangibles:

Magic Realism Maria-Elena Angulo, 2018-10-24 Since the 1930s Latin American writers have used magic realism to transcend the limits of the fantastic and illuminate social problems within the culture. The author considers five modern Latin American novels. Starting with two canonical texts of magic realism: Alejo Carpentier's El reino de este mundo 1949 and Garcia Marquez's Cien años de soledad 1967, the author argues that Los Sangurimas 1934 by the Ecuadorian Jos de la Cuadra is a seminal work due to de la Cuadra's new approach to reality and his use of marvelous and hyperbolic elements. The author shows the continuation of this example in Ecuador in Demetrio Aguilera Malta's Siete lunas y siete serpientes 1970 and Alicia Ynez Cossio's Bruna soroche y los tios 1972, which elucidate social problems of race, class, and gender through use of magic realism. In selecting for her study well-known writers such as Carpentier, Garcia Marquez, and others less well-known such as de la Cuadra, Aguilera Malta, and Ynez Cossio, the author demonstrates that both canonical and noncanonical writers for many years have been working on this new way of writing to interpret in fiction the highly complex Latin American reality.

The Memory of Pain Camila Loew, 2011 In this book Camila Loew analyzes four women's testimonial literary writings on the Holocaust to examine and question some of the tenets of the fields of Holocaust studies, gender studies, and testimony. Through a close reading of the works of Charlotte Delbo, Margarete Buber-Neumann, Ruth Kluger, and Marguerite Duras, Loew foregrounds these authors' search for a written form to engage with their experiences of the extreme. Although each chapter contains its individual focus, the book possesses a unity in intention, concerns, and consequences. In the theoretical introduction that unites the four chapters, Loew eschews essentialism and revises the emergence of the field of Women and Holocaust studies from the early 1980s on and signals some of its shortcomings. In response and in accordance with a recent turn in various disciplines of the Humanities, Loew highlights the ethical dimension of testimony and its responsible commitment to the other. In dealing with the texts as literary testimonies, a complex genre between literature and history, testimony is freed from the obligation to respond to the requirements of factual truth and becomes a privileged form to voice the traumatic event and to symbolically explore the role of excess.

Engaging the Emotions in Spanish Culture and History Luisa Elena Delgado, Pura Fernández, Jo Labanyi, 2021-04-30 Rather than being properties of the individual self, emotions are socially produced and deployed in specific cultural contexts, as this collection documents with unusual richness. All the essays show emotions to be a form of thought and knowledge and a major component of social life, including in the nineteenth century, which attempted to relegate them to a feminine intimate sphere. The collection ranges across topics such as eighteenth-century sensibility, nineteenth-century concerns with the transmission of emotions, early twentieth-century cinematic affect, and the contemporary mobilization of political emotions, including those regarding nonstate national identities. The complexities and effects of emotions are explored in a variety of forms: political rhetoric, literature, personal letters, medical writing, cinema, graphic art, soap opera, journalism, popular music, digital media, with attention paid to broader
